Horsley To Attend 2 National Meets

Wendell R. Horsley, director of placement and student aid, will participate in two national meetings this week.

He leaves today for Bethlehem, Pa., where he will serve as United States. chairman of the visitation committee of the College Placement Services session set up by the College Placement Council. The meeting is designed to upgrade placement and counseling services by visits to campuses over the nation for conferences.

Horsley continues to San Francisco for a meeting of the longrange planning committee of the College Placement Council. The panel includes the six past council presidents.

Long active at the national level, Horsley is the only person to serve as placement council president and also president of two regional placement associa-
