After SWC Lead Trimmed Aggies Meet TCU Saturday

By GERALD GARCIA
 Battalion Sports Editor

Texas Tech's Red Raiders and the University of Texas Longhorns got their revenge. Will TCU get theirs? Or will the Aggies surge back? These questions will be answered Saturday night in G. Rollie White Coliseum when Coach Shelby Metcalf's Aggies host the TCU Horned Frogs. Aggie officials expect another capacity crowd. Only a few reserve seats remain and general admission tickets go on sale at 5:15 p.m. Saturday.

The Aggies must think they have joined a new conference since second-round play started in the SWC. Metcalf's crew held a commanding three-game lead after first-round competition ended, but after two games in the second round the Aggies' lead was trimmed to one game.

FIRST, THE AGGIES caught the University of Texas on one of their hottest nights and the Farmers suffered their first conference loss, 110-82.

Then, the Aggies invaded one of the most dangerous foreign courts — Lubbock's Municipal Coliseum — and came out dangling atop the SWC with only a one-game lead as the Red Raiders shot down the Aggies, 98-85.

Now, it is TCU's turn! The Frogs will be in town Saturday for an 8 p.m. encounter with the Aggies. During first-round play, while the Aggies were threatening to make the race a one-team affair, the Frogs were beaten in Fort Worth by the Cadets, 81-72.

The Aggies must win to stay on top. A loss by the Cadets and a win by the SMU Mustangs, who will be playing Arkansas in Dallas Saturday, will put the race in a two-way tie.

"If we can bounce back and beat TCU Saturday, we can get our morale back and stay in the race," Metcalf noted.

Big John Beasley, A&M's scoring champion, will lead the Aggies against the Frogs. Beasley now holds all of A&M's scoring marks.

THE BEASLEY SLATE READS:

1. Most Points, Career (All Games): 1,422. (Old record — 1,383 by Carroll Broussard, 1960-62).
2. Most Points, Career (SWC Games): 835. (Old record — 825 by Carroll Broussard, 1960-62.)
3. Most Points, Full Season: 619. (Old record — 568 by Bennie Lenox in 1963).
4. Most Points, SWC Season: 395. (Old record — 352 by Bennie Lenox in 1963).
5. Most Field Goals, SWC Games: 19. (Old record — 15 by Carroll Broussard in 1961).
6. Most Field Goals, Full Season: 250. (Old record — 190 by Bennie Lenox in 1964).
7. Most Field Goals, SWC Season: 156. (Old record — 119 by Carroll Broussard in 1961).
8. Most Field Goals, One Game: 19. (Ties old record set by Bennie Lenox in 1963).

Beasley also holds these SWC marks:

1. Most points, SWC Season: 395. (Old record — 362 by Dick O'Neal of TCU in 1955).
2. Most Field Goals, Full Season: 250. (Old record — 243 by Kendall Rhine of Rice in 1964).
3. Most Field Goals, SWC Season: 156. (Old record — 145 by Kendall Rhine of Rice in 1963).

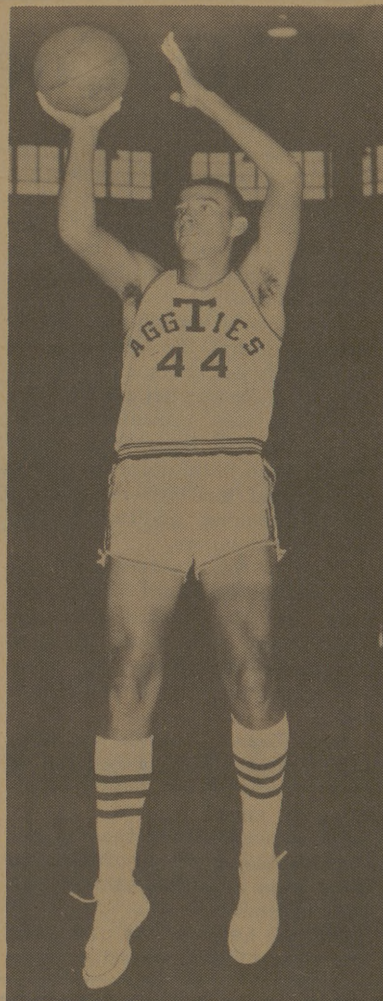

The 6-9 Beasley also holds the Aggie rebound mark. He grabbed 261 rebounds last season to break his own mark of 237 set in 1964.

Joining Beasley in the starting lineup will be Randy Matson, Dick Rector, Eddie Dominguez and Dick Stringfellow.

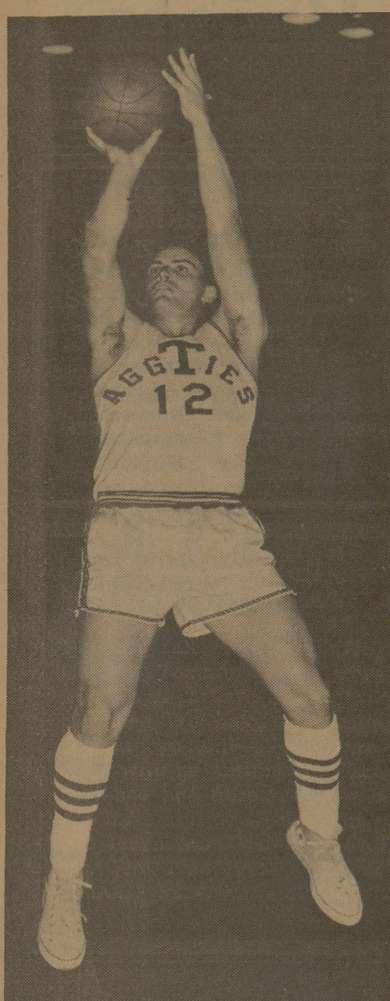

Matson and Rector showed some shooting ability, which the Aggies have lacked in the last two games, against the Red Raiders. Rector hit a season high of 21, while Matson connected for 15.

"Rector was just tremendous," Metcalf said after the Tech game, "and that Randy (Matson) just keeps coming around. He gets better all the time."

Other conference action will find Arkansas meeting SMU in Dallas and Texas Tech invading Austin to play the Longhorns.

JOHN BEASLEY
 ... broke all A&M career scoring marks.

DICK RECTOR
 ... hit high against Tech.

Ags Express Appreciation For Telegram

The Aggie basketball team expressed thanks for the telegram of support sent to them Tuesday morning by Aggies and fans before the game with Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Initiated by KORA's Aggie Hour and sponsored by The Battalion, the telegram read:

"We, the undersigned, plus all the Aggies listening on the radio, will be pulling for you Tuesday night. Just give it your best, That's all we can ask. Beat the everliving h--- outta Texas Tech."

"That was certainly nice of them," said guard Dick Rector. "We really appreciate the support."

The telegram, signed by 533 Aggies, was an idea conceived on short notice by the Aggie Hour's Jerry Cooper and Tom Morgan. A desk was set up in the Memorial Student Center between the post office and the fountain room at 1 p.m. Monday and signing ceased at 8 p.m. the same day.

The plan had no advance publicity. Headed by P. L. (Pinkie) Downs, Aggies paid 10 cents each to sign their names.

"We didn't expect that many names so fast," commented co-captain John Beasley.

Impressed by the spirit shown, guard Eddie Dominguez noted, "That was something real nice to do for us. I wish I knew all 533 so I could thank them personally. This has never happened to me before."

Taking time out from a spirited workout, center Randy Matson assured the fans that "everyone on the team appreciated it."
