Chiles Masters SMU

Aggies Take 8th In Row

WINNING PITCHER CONGRATULATED; COACH GIVES INSTRUCTIONS
Junior Tommy Chiles, left in left picture, product of Shreveport Fair Park, is congratulated by catcher Ralph Beckner after Chiles won his third game of the year with a five-hit shutout of the Southern Methodist Mustangs Tuesday at Kyle Field. The win was A&M's eighth in row this season without a defeat and their first in Southwest Conference play. In the picture on the right, Aggie Coach Tom Chandler yells instructions to his fielders during a threat by the Mustangs. The score was A&M 8, SMU 0.

Tommy Chiles continued the masterful Texas Aggie pitching and Alan Koonce, Lou Camilli and Billy Crain connected for the long ball as the Aggies ran their winning streak to eight.

For the fifth consecutive game, an Aggie pitcher did not allow an earned run — in fact Southern Methodist, A&M's victim Tuesday, was shutout by Chiles, 8-0.

The win was A&M's first in Southwest Conference play as Saturday's TCU game was postponed because of rain.

Texas Lutheran College was the last team to score an earned run on the Aggie pitching corps and they did it on March 4. In the meantime, the Aggies swept a three-game series with Sul Ross and beat the University of Houston, plus SMU.

Sul Ross and Houston did score runs on A&M but all were unearned. The unearned inning string now stays at 43.

Chiles, a product of Shreveport Fair Park, was in danger of losing his shutout and the unearned string only once — in the second frame.

SMU's Donnie Denbow and J. W. Davis led off the inning with singles to put runners on first and third, but Chiles fanned Mike Graves and got Hugh Hackney to ground into an inning-killing double play from Lance Cobb to Mike Arrington to Crain.

Chiles allowed only five hits — only one for more than one base — fanned five and gave up one walk.

While Chiles was blanking SMU, Koonce, Camilli and Crain were supplying the batting support he needed for his third win of the season.

Koonce, the Aggie left fielder, opened the scoring off SMU pitcher Bob Bohren by slamming the first pitch of the second inning into the temporary bleachers at the open end of the football field. Koonce's drive measured well over 425 feet.

The Aggies continued the long ball parade in the third inning as both Camilli and Crain blasted two-run drives over the 330 foot sign in left field.

Camilli's drive scored Chiles, who had singled, ahead of it, while Crain's homer scored Cobb. The two blasts gave the Aggies a 5-0 lead in the third.

Koonce was also instrumental in the last three A&M markers. He scored the sixth run in the sixth inning after opening the frame with a triple off the 357 foot sign in center field. The Aggie left fielder scored after SMU's short stop bobbled a grounder by Niel Thompson.

In the seventh with runners on first and second Koonce hit a slow roller between the mound and third base. As he beat the throw to first for a hit, Camilli, who was on second raced home and Ray Dickerson, who was on first running for Cobb, continued to third.

Ags Shoot Down NTS Net Crew

By LARRY UPSHAW
Battalion Sports Staff

The Texas A&M tennis team, hunting for a win against North Texas State, shot down the Eagles, 5-2.

Playing within the friendly confines of College Station Tuesday afternoon, Coach Omar Smith's racketeers bombarded North Texas in four of the five singles matches and split the two doubles contests.

In the number one singles clash, Aggie Richard Barker bombed Dennis Conner, 6-0, 6-3. Holding service throughout the match, Barker played what Smith describes as "the big game," an aggressive style which never let Conner retaliate.

Luis Rojas then outpointed Paul Snodgras of North Texas, 6-0, 6-0. "Luis played almost flawless tennis," commented Smith. He spent most of the time at the net (slamming the ball), but he also guarded the baseline well.

North Texas captured their lone singles point in a two-hour marathon of duce games, as Roland Ingram defeated Joe Tillerson of A&M, 7-5, 7-5. Sophomore Tillerson missed several chances to checkmate the more experienced Ingram, but his serve kept him in the match.

But Ricky Williams of A&M got the wheels rolling for a 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 mastery of Robert Reid. And Pete Faust, another sophomore, swatted Eagle Mike Eggleston, 6-3, 6-3. The Eagles had flown their last.

Combining crisp volleying with solid overhead shots, doubles crew of Barker and Rojas nipped Ingram and Eggleston of North Texas, 6-3, 7-5. In the final doubles bout, Reid and Snodgras of North Texas used their edge in experience to squeeze out a 6-3, 4-6, 6-4 victory.

"We really feel that this is our toughest team ever," said Smith. "Their record isn't impressive right now (5-4), but I think they will come through."

Freshmanwise, the North Texas frosh bombed the Fish, 6-0. The young Ags suffered from the loss of Joe Powell, the number one frosh netter, who suffered himself — from measles.

In the four singles matches, Marshall Schubert bounced Terry Smith, 6-2, 6-0, and Steve Moreno smashed Paul Cass of A&M by the same score. Steve Malott of North Texas chopped Charles LaSage, 6-2, 6-1 and Tommy Sheely tucked away a 6-1, 6-0 win over the Aggies' Carroll Schubert.

The Fish also kaputtied in doubles action, with Schubert and Moreno of North Texas dominating Smith and Cass, 6-1, 6-4. Malott and Sheely topped the day by defeating LaSage and Schubert of A&M, 6-3, 6-0.
