Sonny Benefield Named To SWC Freshman Squad

Sonny Benefield, A&M's freshman guard from Sweeney, was named to the Waco Tribune-Herald all-Southwest Conference freshman team.

Benefield was joined by Bill Voight, SMU; Larry Smith, Rice; Steve Bartels, Baylor; and James Cash, TCU.

The flashy Aggie was A&M's second leading scorer with a 17.2 avg.

Benefield connected on 76 of 180 field goal attempts for a 42.2 percentage. He sank 56 of 64 free shots for 87.5 per cent which was second highest in the league.

Await Clash With Rice Ag Bats Save Streak After Bulldog Surge

By LARRY UPSHAW Battalion Sports Staff

St. Edwards played the mouse that roared with a temporary five-run bulge over the Texas Aggies Thursday. But never underestimate the swatting Aggies, who rode the bat action to four homers among 14 hits for an 11-5 comeback win.

Winning the non-conference bout handily at Kyle Field sets the stage for Southwest Conference shenanigans Saturday against Rice in Houston. The Owls collected 11 hits Wednesday while catching the short end of a 4-3 decision to Texas.

Texas currently stands atop the SWC totem pole, basking in the splendor of a 2-0 record. The Longhorns previously stymied the Baylor Bears, 5-1. The Aggies lurk just one-half game back with an 8-0 triumph over SMU for a 1-0 skein in conference. The St. Edwards quest gave A&M nine wins without a loss this season.

Veteran lefty Steve Hillhouse will assume pitching chores Saturday. Hillhouse sports a 1-0 record and has not allowed an earned run this season. Outfielder Chuck Malitz is doubtful because of a badly pulled muscle suffered in the St. Edwards clash.

Speaking of St. Edwards, the Bulldogs threw a shock treatment to the A&M pitching crew by collecting the first earned run off Aggie moundmen in 44 innings. Not just one but five runs sprang from Bulldog bats in the second inning, after a three-up, three-down first stanza for both teams.

St. Edwards' George Grezegrek led off with a base on balls. Then five hits and a walk later A&M stood red-faced with an 0-5 deficit.

But the Ags just ho-hummed, stepped to the plate and started swinging.

In the bottom of the second, Alan Koonce tagged a 340-foot homer over the right field fence to begin the onslaught. Malitz singled and hurt his leg returning to first base, so John Poss ran the basepaths for him. A Palph Beckner single and a sacrifice by Neil Thompson sent Poss fleeing home for a 5-2 score.

Billy Johnson, starting pitcher for A&M, retired in the third inning after giving up five hits, five runs, walking two and striking out two. Then sophomore chunker Ken Perrin came in and stymied St. Edwards with 10 strike outs while granting two hits and four walks.

Meanwhile, batwise with the Aggies, all-american Lance Cobb powdered two home runs and a double in four times at bat. Also sophomore Lou Camilli went four of five at the plate, slugging three singles and a two-run round tripper for the cause, and Koonce ripped that homer and a single.

"It's really the mark of a good aggressive ball club," noted Coach Tom Chandler, "to come back when you're down that far."

A&M was forced to come from behind only once before this season. Down 2-0 to the Sul Ross Lobos in early March, the Ags charged to a 4-3 victory.

Behind 4-5 coming into the fourth inning against St. Edwards, Thompson reached base on an error by the first baseman. Camilli crammed his two-runner over the right field fence, Cobb followed with a 350-foot homer, and the mouse that roared just squeaked.

Intramurals

Leggett Hall surged into the lead in Class C intramurals this week after gaining the runner-up slot in volleyball. They were downed by Hart Hall in the finals.

Company E-2 widened its Class A lead, adding the volleyball crown to its conquests. They defeated Sq. 1 in the finals competition.

The Class B tennis playoffs began Wednesday with Sq. 1, F-1, E-2, C-2, A-2 and Sq. 3 gaining quarterfinal berths.

In other action, Classes A and C tennis will get under way Monday and wrestling is slated for March 28.

The standings are:

Table with 2 columns: Class and Score. Includes Class E-2 (505), A-1 (465), G-1 (452), F-2 (450), Sq. 7 (450), Class B (Sq. 8: 498, B-1: 458, Sq. 10: 452, Sq. 12: 448, A-1: 445), Class C (Leggett: 480, Pan Am: 478, Puryear: 390, Law: 385, Dorm 20: 370).

Profs Try Badminton

Six Texas A&M profs will bat the birdie at Baylor Saturday.

An A&M faculty physical fitness class plays badminton at noon every school day. They won berths in an annual Baylor Open badminton tournament.

Entering singles and doubles competition will be Drs. Don Barker and Charles McCandless of the Education and Psychology Department; A. M. Sorenson, Animal Science; Carl Landiss, Health and Physical Education; Maj. Leo Magers, Aerospace Studies and Roy Chisholm, visiting physics professor from England.

"We don't expect to win any trophies, but we'll have a good time," Landiss commented.

Please don't zlupf Sprite. It makes plenty of noise all by itself.

Sprite, you recall, is the soft drink that's so tart and tingling, we just couldn't keep it quiet.

Flip its lid and it really flips. Bubbling, fizzing, gurgling, hissing and carrying on all over the place.

An almost excessively lively drink. Hence, to zlupf is to err.

What is zlupping?

Zlupping is to drinking what smacking one's lips is to eating.

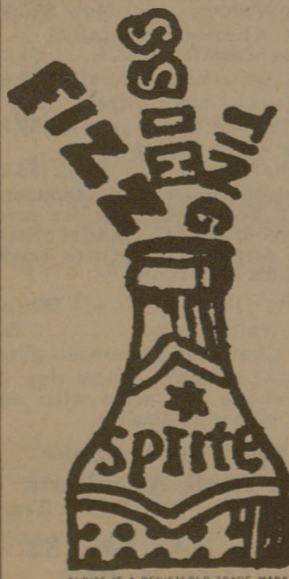

It's the staccato buzz you make when draining the last few deliciously tangy drops of Sprite from the bottle with a straw.

Zzzzzlllupf! It's completely uncalled for. Frowned upon in polite society. And not appreciated on campus either.

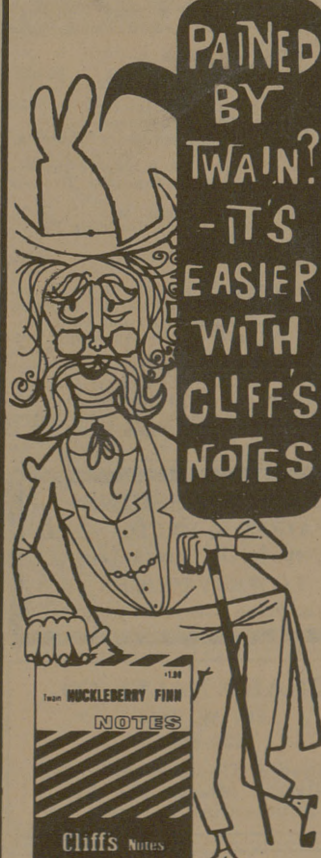

But, if zlupping Sprite is absolutely essential to your enjoyment; if a good healthy zlupf is your idea of heaven, well... all right.

Drink with a heart. With a brain as noisy as Sprite, a little zlupf goes a long, long way.

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING. WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.
