JACK PARDEE ... Texas Aggie coach returns to the pros.

Pardee Quits Aggie Staff To Rejoin Ram Defense

Assistant football Coach Jack Pardee felt the call of the pros too great and rejoined the Los Angeles Rams Wednesday.

An eight-year veteran of professional football, Pardee resigned as tutor to Aggie line-backers and defensive backs on Head Coach Gene Stallings' year-old staff.

"He felt it was to his financial advantage," commented Stallings, "if he played another three or four years. They way they're paying for rookies these days, they ought to pay well for a returning veteran."

Pardee's contract terms are unknown, but it is known that his return fulfills a vow which new Coach George Allen made when he took over the Rams. Pardee anchored the Ram defense, gaining all-pro recognition in 1963.

He played football, basketball, baseball and track at Christoval High School and made all-state in six-man football. He played three seasons at A&M and was an all-America line-backer in 1956.

Pardee also participated in the 1956 Blue-Gray game and the 1957 Senior Bowl and College All-Star games following college. As a professional footballer, he played on the West squad in the 1964 NFL Pro-Bowl game.

Announced at the same time but in no way related, is the fact that all-pro flanker Bobby Joe Conrad of the St. Louis Cardinals will help coach the Aggies in spring training. There was speculation that Conrad would replace Pardee as a regular staff member.

"Bobby Joe will coach the split ends and flankers in the spring only," declared Stallings. "He probably will play pro ball for another four or five years. Lots of college staffs have pro players help in the spring."

Concerning the loss of Pardee, Stallings explained that he will reshuffle the present staff for the time being and add another man after spring training. Spring drills begin April 14.

Current staff members are Elmer Smith, Dee Powell, Bud Moore, Don Watson, Loyd Taylor, Jack Hurbut, and Ralph Smith. Pardee's duties will be divided among them.

Ags, Gophers Tie After 10 Innings

By LARRY UPSHAW

They battled long but settled nothing, for the Texas Aggies and the Minnesota Gophers swung 10 innings for the sake of a 3-3 tie. By mutual consent of the coaches, the three hour and fifteen minute batathon ceased at Kyle Field Thursday and no one was the worse for wear.

The Texas A&M pitching parade resembled a well-staged demonstration as five hurlers walked back and forth from bullpen-to-pitcher's mound-to-bench. The Aggies allowed just six hits, but Coach Tom Chandler wanted a look-see at those lacking mound action this spring.

Starter Hank Deviney fell in a Gopher hole in the top of the second inning as two singles, a walk and a sacrifice fly netted one Minnesota lopping across the plate with the initial run.

Chandler pulled Deviney in the top of the fourth in favor of Dickey Valentine, who had pitched only one inning previously. But a similar fate awaited Valentine.

With great gusto, Minnesota pitcher Frank Brosseau feathered his own nest, clouting a two-run homer in the top of the fifth. And round-trippers were quite novel as the stiff wind blew in toward home plate.

The mute Aggie bats suddenly began to crack as third baseman Lou Camilli lashed a double and shortstop Mike Arrington for a 3-1 difference with five innings gone.

With batteries recharged, A&M slowly began to perk. In the seventh stanza, outfielder Ricky

Schwartz, second baseman Lance Cobb, and Camilli walked, and Schwartz skipped scoreward on a fielding error by Gopher first baseman Dennis Zacho. Then the eighth inning provided the cap-

Centerfielder Neil Thompson outtraced a perfect bunt for a hit, watched catcher Joe Staples slam a single and rode home on a Schwartz double to tie up the works, 3-3.

After nine innings and the score still knotted, the Gophers fell three abreast in the tenth. Then the Aggies' Staples hit a one-baser and captured second on a single by Schwartz.

With pitcher Billy Crain at bat, Minnesota Coach Dick Siebert brought centerfielder Tom Boldt in as an extra infielder to defend against the bunt. This made center field free country, but Crain obliged with a grounder to force Staples out at third.

Camilli caused heart failure with a bomber over the right field wall—just foul. But the cause died with a double play by Minnesota and the cold wind plus darkness prompted the stopping.
