Aggies Host Horns

SWC Top Spot On Line At Kyle Field Saturday

By GERALD GARCIA
Battalion Sports Editor

Tom Chandler has been coach of the Texas Aggie baseball team since 1959. In six of the seven seasons—Chandler is now in his eighth year — his team has fought it out with the Texas Longhorns for the league title. And this year looks like no exception.

A&M and Texas are two of the top 10 teams in the nation according to the latest Collegiate Baseball poll. The Aggies are ranked sixth and the Longhorns ninth. Both teams have lost once for the year. A&M to Baylor; Texas to TCU.

But ratings, polls and records mean nothing when these two teams meet. And Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Kyle Field diamond, the Aggies and the Horns will renew their rivalry.

The game will be a "big" one for both teams. The winner will either take over sole possession of the top spot in the Southwest Conference race or remain in a tie. Currently, A&M, Texas, TCU and Baylor are tied for the lead with one loss apiece. The loser of the A&M-Texas game will drop from the list of the once-defeated into the twice-defeated and out of a tie for the lead.

Also the winner of the A&M-Texas game may come out on top of the league if both TCU and Baylor lose.

Both teams did not meet their Waterloo until conference play. Texas rolled over non-conference foes with ease and bombed several of the teams by as much as 10 runs. Then they conquered Baylor, SMU and Rice in conference, but TCU slowed the Texas Express Wednesday, 6-2, to give the Longhorns a 9-1-1 record for the season and 3-1 for conference.

The Aggies did likewise. They pushed non-conference teams aside with great hitting and excellent pitching, and it looked like they were going to do the same thing in conference by whitewashing SMU and Rice, but Baylor stopped A&M Tuesday, 4-1.

Chandler will more than likely go with Steve Hillhouse, A&M's Texas killer.

The Hiller has the reputation around the league that he can beat Texas any day. Last year he stopped Texas once, 13-1, and the previous year when he was voted "Sophomore of the Year," and the Aggies won the title for the second time under Chandler he put the clamp on the Horns twice.

Hillhouse has won two games this season without a loss. He has allowed only one earned run in over 25 innings of work. In his last outing against Rice, he pitched a one-hit shutout.

The rest of the Aggie lineup will be Lou Camilli, third base; Mike Arrington, short stop; Lance Cobb, second base, Billy Crain, first base; Alan Koonce, left field; Chuck Malitz or John Poss, center field, Joe Staples, catcher, Richard Schwartz or Neil Thompson, right field and Hillhouse.
