

THE BATTALION

Prof Discusses Russian Fishing

The United States should not censure Russian fishing off the coast of Oregon, a Texas A&M oceanographer has contended. American trawler captains have accused a fleet of Russian vessels of improper fishing. They claim the Russians are removing 300,000 pounds of perch, sole and halibut a day from international waters. Fishermen operating out of Newport, Ore., claim the Soviets are taking immature fish. "We can't criticize the Russians too much for something some of our fishing folk have done," said Dr. Willis E. Pequegnat, head of A&M's Department of Oceanography. "But this is like Arctic whaling. The Japanese and Russians don't worry about decimation of whale herds in that area," he said.

"Fish sources are not inexhaustible," Pequegnat warned. "Indiscriminate trawling such as this could severely handicap fishing in the area for two or three years." He pointed out that Russia is one of several countries that refuse to recognize pacts such as the International Halibut Commission, an international agreement to restrict and protect halibut supply.

AIR CADETS TALK TO SCHRIEVER
Three A&M Air Force cadets chat with Gen. Bernard A. Schriever at the Arnold Air Society's annual meeting in Dallas recently. Schriever, a 1931 A&M graduate, is commander of the Air Force Systems Command. He was cited by the ROTC society "for outstanding dedication to the task of insuring development of vitally needed weaponry for national defense." Aggies, left to right, are Neal C. Ward, John P. Tyson and Gene N. Patton.

Graham Movie Scheduled For Bryan Showing

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in Bryan starting April 27. Seventeen showings are scheduled at the Queen Theatre through May 3. The film will be seen at 6:15 and 8:30 p.m. daily except Sunday, when matinees are planned at 2 and 4:15 p.m. A 2 p.m. matinee also is scheduled Saturday. With the accent on youth, the feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teenage crisis. Area church leaders head the premiere organization here. Joining Mike Mistovich, general chairman for the event, are Rev. Clinton Watson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in Bryan; inter-church director; Dr. Richard Poss, pastor of First Baptist Church, Bryan, counseling and arrangements director; James Stegall, Stephen F. Austin High School principal, student groups director, and Walter Arber, treasurer. Seats for the 1 hour and 45 minute film may be reserved by calling 822-8075.
