

Senate Urges Action On Political Groups

By DANI PRESSWOOD
Battalion News Editor

The Student Senate passed a resolution Thursday night reaffirming its earlier stand concerning political clubs on campus and urging the Executive Council to act on the issue as soon as possible.

In conjunction with the resolution, Senate President Roland Smith announced that A&M President Earl Rudder has appointed a committee of faculty-staff members to study the issues of political clubs and faculty evaluation by students.

Proposed by Parliamentarian Craig Buck, the resolution states that the Senate is reaffirming its support for "the admission of partisan political clubs on campus on the same basis of other clubs subject to standards the Student Senate established.

"Furthermore, we urge that the Executive Council and committee President Rudder set up consider the resolution of Nov. 18, 1965 at the earliest possible opportunity and immediately inform the president of the Student Senate of their decision."

Dean of Students James P. Hannigan addressed the Senate on the proposed matter of centralizing the Corps in the Duncan dorm area.

In an informal poll on the question the Senate expressed a favorable opinion.

After some debate, the Senate voted down a motion to establish a scholarship fund from money in the Campus Chest.

Welfare Chairman James Morris proposed the motion in an attempt to grant two $500 scholarships beginning in the fall of 1967.

He said the Campus Chest now has $2,918 and is having difficulty finding people willing to utilize the fund.

In other action, the body passed a motion to join and participate in the Texas Intercollegiate Students Association next year.

Student Life Chairman Dick Franklin announced that nomination for Aggie Mother of the Year would remain open until Thursday.

Election Commission Chairman Harris Pappas announced winners of the Student Senate and Civilian Student Council election and the Senate chose its nomination for the Faculty Distinguished Achievement Award Program.

'FROG' ACTRESSES DO JERK

Madisonville High School one-act play contestants do the jerk during Region III Class AA high school competition in Guion Hall Thursday. Ronnie Jackson, center, was named to the all-star cast for his part in "The Frogs." Stephen F. Austin High School of Port Arthur won first place, with Taylor taking second. Edmond Chesson and Lucy Delcambro of Port Arthur were awarded best actor and actress awards. Mike Dabbs and Stance Sherley of Taylor were runnersup. Tyre Ann Brown of Luling also made the all-star cast.

Banquet Tonight For Staff, Board

An overflow crowd is expected for the annual faculty-staff-board of Directors dinner Friday night in Sbsia Hall.

The event begins at 6:45 p.m. with a receiving line for directors to greet faculty and staff. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m.

Clyde Wells of Granbury, vice president of the Board, will address the group, followed by remarks from A&M President Earl Rudder. Special entertainment is scheduled by the Singing Cadets.

Each director will be introduced by a faculty member. They include C. H. Sampson Jr. — H. C. Heldenfels of Corpus Christi, board president; T. C. Cartwright — Vice President Wells; D. A. Anderson — Clyde Thompson of Diboll; A. F. Isbell — Dr. A. P. Beutel of Lake Jackson; Travis Parker — L. F. Peterson of Fort Worth; J. E. Pearson — Gardiner Symonds of Houston; L. A. Maddox — Sterling C. Evans, also of Houston; Delbert McGuire — S. B. Whittenburg of Amarillo, and L. C. Grumbles — Wofford Cain of Dallas.

Tessies To Give 2nd Manners Talk

Texas Woman's University coeds will present the second "Man Your Manners" panel Tuesday.

The four Tessies who will be speaking at 7:30 p.m. in the YMCA are freshman Suzanne Peters, participant in the CONE Fashion Show; sophomore Cherri Holland, 1966 Aggie Sweetheart; and seniors Carol Cater and Jane Sullins, both Sweetheart finalists in 1964.

- Points to be discussed are:
1. Dating etiquette.
  2. Table manners (helping others enjoy your eating). This will include tips on etiquette during Corps trips, going Dutch treat and table manners in restaurants and cafes.
  3. Appropriate dress for formal dinners.
  4. Cocktail parties.
  5. Receptions (to drink or not; how to avoid embarrassment).
  6. Driving etiquette ("Pardon my carbon monoxide").

Panel number three will feature "Romance to Marriage" on May 3. Judy Jones, Whitney Vickers, Pat Bone and Pat Harris will discuss the topic.

Oxford Genetics Scholar To Give Evolution Speech

Dr. Edmund B. Ford, widely recognized geneticist and statistician, will give a graduate lecture here Tuesday.

"The Experimental Study of Evolution" is the 8 p.m. topic in room 146 of the Physics Building, Graduate Dean Wayne C. Hall announced.

A native of Great Britain, Ford is a Fellow and Medallist of the Royal Society and a past president of the Genetical Society of Great Britain. He has lectured 40 years at Oxford.

Current professional interests of the zoology professor at Oxford's All Souls College relate to the use of statistics in developing ecological genetics.

Two additional campus lectures are scheduled by Ford. "The Bearing of Ecological Genetics Upon Anthropology and Medicine" is slated for 12:45 p.m. Monday in rooms 2C and D of the Memorial Student Center. At 4 p.m. Tuesday, he will discuss "Genetics Polymorphism" in rooms 112 and 113, Plant Sciences Building.

The Family That Prays Together...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
