

Aggie Players To Present 3 One-Act Plays Tuesday

The Aggie Players have scheduled three one-act plays next week, as the Aggie Follies continue tonight and Saturday.

"Winners and Losers," winner of the 1966 Aggie Player Award for a Play Running Three Days in May, will be presented two more times this week in the Follies.

Written by A&M students Kirk Stewart and Cynthia Smith, the play tells of the trying times faced by the 12th Fairy and his sidekick, Marvel Boy.

Also appearing in the program are Jim Baldauf, magician; "The Wayfarers," a folk group; Louis Wommer and his Warriors; plus juggling acts, other singing acts, a sabre - swallowing (military sword swallowing) act and other assorted presentations.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Admission price is $1.

Upcoming in the Fallout Theater Tuesday night are three plays directed by students.

"The Killing of Abel," directed by Marie Crook, is a popular Wakefield Cycle mystery play (a term which has nothing to do with whodunits). Appearing in this production are Kippen Blair, Richard Dooley, Randy Davis and Leon Greene.

Bud Franks will direct "27 Wagons Full of Cotton," written by Tennessee Williams. This play takes place on the Mississippi delta.

"Submerged," directed by Thomas Bond, is a tragedy by H. Stuart Cottman and LeVergne Shaw. Appearing in it are Kerry Ellis, Pat Stalker, Phil Watson, Randy Mason, Pete Ahrens and Dennis Tarden.

The Fallout Theater is located in the rear of Guion Hall. Productions start at 8 p.m. Admission is fifty cents.

SPLASH DAY REFUGEE

GAS, a puppy found by four civilian freshmen on a Galveston Beach last weekend, is looking for a home in Aggieland. "Red" Love, Doug Ballentine, Bob Curlee and John Clary found him drunk on the beach and have been keeping him in Milner. But the janitor protested his unruly bathroom manners, and now the four rescuers are making a plea for help. He's been eating Sbis chow and roaming the halls, so anyone that would like to improve his fate (move to Duncan?) should contact one of the four in Milner.

MOTHER'S DAY

and MOTHER'S DAY

Our artist is not experimenting with his brush! There is a profound difference between these two days . . .

MOTHER'S DAY — with the accent on Mother — is the second Sunday in May, when we honor Motherhood, and express our deep affection for Mother. Mother's DAY — with the accent on Day — is every day of the year. It is Mother's unending labor of love. It is Monday's wash and Tuesday's ironing, the meals to be cooked and the beds to be made, the bruises to be healed and the prayers to be heard.

And at the close of her DAY, Mother has prayers of her own—for her little-ones, her husband and herself.

God is answering many of those prayers through the Church. With its effective program of religious education and worship the Church can supply the spiritual needs in Mother's DAY . . . and in your DAY also!

YMCA To Induct Officers At Hensel Park Steak Fry

YMCA officers for 1966-67 will be installed at a steak fry.

Newly elected President Russell Van Hellen, a junior from San Antonio, will be installed as head of next year's organization.

Other cabinet posts will be occupied by Vice-president Clarence Daugherty, sophomore from San Antonio; Secretary Reese Brown, sophomore from Tyler, and Treasurer Norman Frost, freshman from Fort Worth.

Additional officers to be installed are sophomores Donald Houston of Dallas, head of weekly programs, and Tom Bell of Montgomery, Ala., chairman of special programs. Doug Pearson, a freshman from Oil City, La., will be in charge of freshman programs next year.

Out-going President Eddie Carpenter, a senior from Tyler, said anyone may attend the steak fry at Hensel Park for 50 cents.

The money, which must be paid at the main desk in the YMCA, will pay for a steak, bread, baked beans, potato salad and iced tea.

Students going to the fry will leave together from the YMCA between 5:30 and 6 p.m. Monday.
