

A HAPPY CRAIN

Billy Crain, who stopped a Texas rally in the ninth inning Tuesday, discusses the Aggies' 8-6, win over the Longhorns which gave A&M at least a share of the Southwest Conference baseball title.

Russell Top Draft Prospect In NBA

NEW YORK (AP) — Cazzie Russell, Michigan's 6-foot-5, 218-pound All-America, is expected to be the No. 1 pick by the New York Knickerbockers Wednesday in the annual player draft of the National Basketball Association.

New York won the coin flip with the Detroit Pistons for the right to make the first selection after the two teams finished last in the two divisions. Detroit will get second pick and probably will take Dave Bing, the 6-3, All-America from Syracuse, a fine all-around performer who scored 794 points.

Dave Schellhase, another All-America star from Purdue who led the nation's major colleges in scoring with a 32.5-point average, also is due to be taken high in the first round.

The new Chicago Bulls, who will operate as the 10th team in the league in the 1966-67 season, will have to wait until 10th and last in the first round. However, the new entry, coached by John Kerr, will get the third and fourth picks in the second round.

The order of selection in the draft scheduled for 12 noon EDT will be New York, Detroit, San Francisco, St. Louis, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Los Angeles, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago. In the second round Detroit moves up to No. 1.

After two rounds, president Walter Kennedy will call a short recess. Then they will continue as long as the supply lasts.

Bill Bradley of Princeton was the first pick last year. He went to the Knicks but passed up pro ball to continue his studies. Bradley, Bill Buntin of Michigan Detroit and Gail Goodrich of UCLA Los Angeles were the first men taken last year as territorial selections, a category that has been eliminated.

One potential draftee, Henry Finkel, 6-11, 240-pounder from Dayton, already has been selected twice—by Los Angeles and Cincinnati. Because he went back to school, he is in the hopper again.

Clyde Lee of Vanderbilt, a 6-9, 220-pound giant, has said he plans to play in Italy but he probably will be picked by some club.

The Knicks refuse to admit that they will take Russell but they have commented, "We will take the best college player available." Most observers think Russell is the man.

Russell scored 800 points, averaging 30.8, last season, led the Big Ten in scoring, was named most valuable player in the East-West game and most valuable player in the AAU tournament. An ankle injury kept him off the 1964 Olympic team.

Scafe Wins Judo Laurels

Don Scafe of Ridgetown, Ontario, has "Wazari-ed" his way to the championship of Texas A&M Judo Club matches.

The judo tourney, A&M's first this year and planned monthly in the future, was held in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Tommy Erwin of Waco and Scafe won preliminary matches with "holddowns," pinning opponents' backs to the mat for 30 seconds. Scafe defeated Erwin with a Wazari (throw, worth half a point) after each had scored by that method.

The first man to score a point in judo wins the match.

In other matches Saturday, Dr. W. George Blanton, black belt and club instructor, won over Jim Culpepper with a choke and Culpepper bested J. Blasdel by default. Scafe and Culpepper, of Fort Valley, Ga., wear brown belts. Erwin wears green.

The judo club meets at 5 p.m. in Room 253 of the Coliseum, Scafe announced. He invited interested students and faculty members to attend.

Intramurals

Company G-1 picked up 68 points and a second place finish in the recently completed Class A wrestling competition to forge into first place in the Class A intramurals.

Company D-2 won the Class A wrestling with 70 points and Sq-7 came in third with 55 points. In the Class B wrestling competition, A-1 and D-2 tied for first place with 75 points and G-2 finished third with 65 points.

Aggies face TCU in Fort Worth on Saturday afternoon.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my many friends who voted for me on May 7 for the 47.89% of the votes cast for me for the office of County Clerk. I humbly solicit your vote and support in the Saturday, June 4 election.
