

Mortimer's
Notes

Howdy! Guess you are wondering where I was last week. . . . You would not believe what happened to me. . . . First, I had this big mid-term exam to study for. . . . Secondly, I got campused because I took my date back to her dorm after curfew. . . . At least my campus was only for a week, but my poor date will not be able to go out any more this semester. . . .

You know what???? That curfew the university has on the coeds is unfair. . . . The university has too many rules and regulations the girls have to follow. . . . Some of the coeds claim that it makes them feel like they are going to a grade school. . . . I agree.

One of the reasons I am griping so much is that the reason we were late getting back to her dorm is that we were studying at the library for our exam and did not realize that it was time for her to go to the dorm. . . . The girl had to be back at 10:30 p.m. because it was a week night but the library does not close until midnight. . . . This means that she was deprived of an hour and half of research work she had to do.

Now the weekend curfews are more reasonable but they still need to be adjusted a little. . . . On weekends the girls do not have to be in until midnight on Fridays and 1 a.m. on Saturdays. . . . These times are fine if you are just taking your date to a place in town. . . . But if you are planning to go to Houston to a ball game or to some show then the girl should be able to get extra privileges. . . . Of course this is not granted and then you have to take your date to some place around here and, as you have noticed by now, there are not very many places to go around here. . . .

The only way a girl can get extra privileges is to get written permission from her parents. . . . This is fine because this is done at other schools, but at other schools the girls can get a special permission slip from their parents and this slip can be used every weekend. . . . This is the way it should work here.

An extra 30 minutes for week nights and an extra hour for weekends should be granted to the girls.

Now that I got that off my chest I can give you some interesting things that are coming up. . . . Remember finals are next week. . . . Tonight the Memorial Student Center will have another of their dances. . . . Now this would be a good time for the coeds who stay in the dorms to have extra privileges. . . . The dance does not start until 8 p.m. and will run until midnight. . . . If you have a date you will have to take her back to the dorm at 10:30 p.m. because of the curfew and this is about the time the dance really gets swinging. . . . The Fallout Theater will have three more one-act plays at 8 p.m. Friday. . . . These plays will be the last for this semester.

See you 'round—

Mortimer
