ROBINSON'S CRUSOE

By BOB ROBINSON
 Who says Aggies aren't cultured? The Fallout Theater has completed its production for the first summer session, and the John Avery Lomax Folklore Society put on its first summer concert Sunday night. All of them brought in sell-out crowds. This is the best response Aggies and Bryan-College Station residents have shown toward student-faculty productions in quite a while. Watch The Batt for scheduled dates of other productions, including the premiere of the '66 Aggie Road Show and the second summer concert by the John A. Lomax Society.

Rumor has it that the Town Hall Committee has some stars lined up for next year that will make the '66-'67 season the best yet. Make your plans now, or when the schedule comes out—whichever is easier.
 Reactions to my plea for a better way to wake up in the morning were somewhat limited.

I did receive one idea, though, which was suggested that maybe a non would wake Jim and me. I'm afraid we'll have to let it up, though. Our landlady, as our final warning when she burnt the apartment down a while back.

I would like to offer my grats to Misti for lasting a two weeks in The Batt. Now, with no indications of going yet. Keep chugging, Misti, if you work hard, we may see you my supervisory position.
 See ya' next week.

DOUBLE MEANING

SYDNEY (AP) — In the for the next census in Australia one question has been changed from "Length of residence in Australia" to "Period of residence in Australia."

Reason: In the past many people measured the outside dimensions of their houses to the question.
