SILVER LEAF PROMOTION
Lt. Col. George R. Kirmse was recently promoted to his new grade at Texas A&M. Military Science Department Commandant Col. D. L. Baker pins the rank insignia. Kirmse is in his second year as associate professor and also is chief of Army ROTC basic division.

Kirmse Gets Promotion

Associate professor of military science George R. Kirmse was recently promoted to lieutenant colonel at Texas A&M.
Kirmse, 38, was pinned with the silver leaf by Col. D. L. Baker, professor and commandant of the Military Science Department.
Kirmse instructs American military history and is chief of the Army ROTC basic division. He has been at A&M two years.
The quartermaster office has 19 years service and was post exchange officer, Stuttgart, Germany, in his last assignment. The position, equivalent to district manager of a large department store, involved management of a 1,400 civilian employee organization.
He had charge of 32 retail and food shops and over 100 other types of service facilities, including eight garages. The system grossed $2.5 million a month.
Kirmse has held numerous quartermaster assignments during his 17 years of active service, including advisor to an Iranian Army Corps and adjutant at Belle Mead General Depot in Somerville, N. J.

SHOW-OFF
Harry is "showing-off"—and he certainly has a most appreciative audience!
We all "show-off" sometimes, in one way or another. It's a natural human tendency, and we can't be blamed for expressing it occasionally. And we are not apt to overdo it if we discover the need for humility.
Church is one place where this lesson can be learned. In God's House, we know instinctively how small we really are, which makes us more thankful for both His love and compassion.
We need this sense of coming down to size. We need to look with humble eyes at ourselves, at our fellow men, and at the miracles of God's creations.
Yes — we need to go to church.
THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
