

Aggie Fish Try Again Tonight

BY GARY SHERER

WACO—The Texas A&M Fish football team clashes with the Baylor Cubs here tonight at 7:30. Aggie Freshman Coach Jake Helms has an optimistic outlook about the game. Helms said the team has worked hard this week in preparation for the bout. "We've been stressing fundamentals," he said. "We want to win, but we still want the players to think."

"We expect a passing offense just like the Baylor varsity," Helms added when commenting on the Cubs' strength. Helms said that players like Baylor's Richard Stevens, 6-5, 235-pound tackle from Dublin and Brian Blessing, 6-1, 195-pound halfback from Dallas, will offer the Fish a tough go tonight.

JAKE HELMS Team Looks For First.

The two teams have identical records in conference. Each lost its only game of the season. Baylor stumbled to the Texas Short-horns, 13-7, and the Frosh lost to TCU, 35-12.

Tonight's battle will be broadcast over radio station KORA starting at 7:15 p.m.

Coach Helms plans to start the offensive and defensive teams he employed in the initial Frosh game. The anticipated Fish line-ups are:

Gilchrist Arrives Late For 1st Day

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Carlton Chester "Cookie" Gilchrist, pro football's problem child, showed up late Wednesday for a workout with his new teammates, the Miami Dolphins.

But this time it wasn't Cookie's fault. His plane was delayed.

When it did arrive, Gilchrist put on sweat clothes, ran with the Dolphins under a hot sun, and said he had found a permanent home at last.
