Ags Go For Broke

The last time SMU brought an unblemished Southwest Conference record against the Aggies (1956), they failed to win another game and A&M marched on to the championship.

Will history repeat itself and help the Aggies return to their winning ways, or will the high-flying Mustangs notch their fourth straight SWC victory and set the stage for a shoot-out with Arkansas?

between the two schools, with A&M holding a 23-to-19 edge over the Mustangs, with six ties.

SMU's Coach Hayden Fry is all even with the Aggies in four previous meetings—but a Fry-coached team has yet to triumph over A&M in the Cotton Bowl.

Last year, here at College Station, the Mustangs blanked the Ags, 10-0.

The Ponies will bring the league's best per-game offense into the Dallas game. Stallings summed the squad up as having good personnel and good team speed.

"I'd say their strong suit is the fact they have a lot of seniors playing," he noted. "Mac White is a real good quarterback and he likes to run the ball more than Jon Brittenum of Arkansas." He also had praise for the passing and receiving abilities of sophomore Jerry Levias.

Coach Stallings expects to make no major changes in his starting lineup against the Methodists.

"We're playing the best we've got," he said.

AGGIELAND 1967 OUTFIT PICTURES

Uniform will be Class A Winter. Outfit C.O.'s will wear sabers; seniors will wear boots and mid-night shirts. Guidons and award flags will be carried. ALL personnel in the outfit will wear the billed service cap issued by the University. The type of cap worn by underclassmen to and from the picture-taking area is left up to the discretion of the outfit C. O.

Outfits should be in front of the Administration Building by 1230 hours on the appointed day. Arrangements should be made by first sergeants with the Mess Hall supervisors to allow the outfit to be admitted to the Mess Hall early.

Fish Clobber Owlets, 31-3

BY BOBBY BATSON
Batt Special Writer

Texas A&M Fish displayed things to come, as they swamped the visiting Rice Owlets 31-3 on Kyle Field last night.

The win boosted the Fish season record to two wins and one loss, while the Owlets are winless in four starts.

Quarterback Barney Harris paced the A&M aerial attack as he hit target nine times in 15 attempts for a total of 201 yards. The shifty quarterback and kicking specialist, Mark Moseley, figured in on all the scoring, as Harris ran for one tally and passed for three more, while Moseley kicked four extra points and one field goal.

The Fish scored early as they took the opening kickoff and drove 84 yards in 10 plays for the score. Harris, aided by a key sideline block by halfback Ross Brubacher, rolled out 13 yards around left end for the tally. Moseley's extra-point was good to give the Fish an early 7-0 lead.

Rice fought back in the second quarter and drove 69 yards to the Maroon and White 11. Faced with a fourth and 7, the visitors chose to kick for their lone three-pointer.

Minutes later, Harris capped a 59-yard, six-play march by flipping an eight-yard scoring pass to halfback Brian Christen in the end zone. Moseley's kick boosted the Fish to a 14-3 lead.

Taking a dead punt on the 45-yard line, Harris lofted a first-down pass 43 yards to the outstretched arms of end Jimmy Adams who raced the remaining 12 yards for the score. Moseley's point-after kick gave the Fish a 21-3 lead at halftime.

It was Harris passing for a score again, this time in the third quarter to his ex-high school teammate Bob Young who cut inside the sideline flag. Moseley upped the score to 28-3.

Faced with a stalled drive on the Rice 17-yard line, the Fish called for Moseley to wrap up the scoring on a 25-yard field goal.

Please don't zlupf Sprite. It makes plenty of noise all by itself.

Sprite, you recall, is the soft drink that's so tart and tingling, we just couldn't keep it quiet.

Flip its lid and it really flips. Bubbling, fizzing, gurgling, hissing and carrying on all over the place.

An almost excessively lively drink. Hence, to zlupf is to err.

What is zlupfing?

Zlupfing is to drinking what smacking one's lips is to eating.

It's the staccato buzz you make when draining the last few deliciously tangy drops of Sprite from the bottle with a straw.

Zzzzzllupf! It's completely uncalled for. Frowned upon in polite society. And not appreciated on campus either.

But, if zlupfing Sprite is absolutely essential to your enjoyment; if a good healthy zlupf is your idea of heaven, well...all right.

But have a heart. With a drink as noisy as Sprite, a little zlupf goes a long, long way.

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING, WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.

Escape!

Get out from under this weekend. Fly someplace—for half fare on Eastern.

Visit a friend in another town. See an "away" game. Change the scene. Leave late, come back late, enjoy a long weekend—without cutting classes.

Use your Eastern Youth ID Card, or another airline's version. If you don't have one—and you're under 22—you really ought to.

To get your Youth Fare Card, send a $3 check or money order, proof of age (copy of driver's license, birth certificate or passport) to Eastern Airlines, Department 350, 10 Rockefeller Plaza, N. Y., N. Y. 10020

With your Youth ID Card, you can get an Eastern ticket for half fare. No advance reservations are permitted. But if there's a seat free at departure time, after passengers holding reservations and military personnel have been seated, you can fly to any Eastern city in the United States. And look down on all the drivers.
