

Moorman, Housley All-SWC

By GARY SHERER
Recently-named All-America tackle Maurice "Mo" Moorman has another accolade to add to his already long list.

He and Aggie teammate Wendell Housley were named to the All-Southwest Conference offensive team for 1966. The team shows a definite youth movement as four sophomores and six juniors were named to the offensive and defensive units.

It was the most sophomores ever named to the all-star unit. Along with Housley, other sophomores were: Jerry Levias of SMU; Chris Gilbert and Corby Robertson of Texas.

Conference winner SMU placed seven on both teams, while second place Arkansas had five. Texas, tied with the Razorbacks for second position in the conference, listed three players, while A&M and TCU placed two each on the squads. Baylor, Rice and Texas Tech had one each to give every team in the conference a representative.

The all-conference team:
Offensive — Ends, Larry Gilbert, Texas Tech; and Levias; tackles, Moorman and Dick Cunningham, Arkansas, George Gaiser, SMU; guards, Lynn Thornhill, SMU, Howard Goard, Texas; center, Melvin Gibbs, Arkansas; quarterback, Mac White, SMU; halfbacks, Housley and Gilbert; and fullback, Lester Lehman, Rice.

Defensive — Ends, Robertson and Hartford Hamilton, Arkansas; tackles, Loyd Phillips, Arkansas, Mike Bratcher, TCU; guards, Greg Pipes, Baylor; John LaGrone, SMU; linebackers, Billy Bob Stewart and Jerry Griffin, both of SMU; defensive halfbacks, Frank Horak, TCU, Martine Bercher, Arkansas; safety, Chuck Latourette, Rice.

With so many under-classesmen making the team, the 1967 season promises to be filled with some great action.

Rice Names New Head Coach

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Harold Bo Hagan, backfield specialist who helped develop such pro quarterbacks as Frank Ryan and King Hill, Wednesday was named head football coach of Rice University.

Hagan has been an assistant for the past 11 years to Jess Neely, who announced six months ago that the 1966 season would be his 27th and last as head coach at the Southwest Conference school.

Neely also is to retire next Sept. 1 as athletic director.

Hagan's selection was announced at a news conference after a meeting of the university trustees.

A native of Savannah, Ga.,

Hagan was a quarterback at South Carolina and served as freshman coach at Georgia Tech and as an assistant at Southern Methodist prior to joining the Rice coaching staff under Neely in 1956.

The first two quarterbacks Hagan worked with at Rice were Ryan, now with the Cleveland Browns, and Hill, now with the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill and Ryan frequently alternated in directing the Rice offense but Hill normally drew the starting assignment.

The search for the first new head coach at Rice in 27 years began six months ago when Neely, who will be 69 in January, announced his retirement plans.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Official notices must arrive in the Office of Student Publications before deadline of 1 p. m. of the day preceding publication. 3765fn

All freshmen in the College of Liberal Arts are to meet in Guion Hall, Thursday, December 1, at 4:00 p. m. 3765fn

Those undergraduate students who have 95 semester hours of credit may purchase the A&M ring. The hours passed at the time of the preliminary grade report on November 14, 1966, may be used in satisfying the 95 hour requirement. Those students qualifying under this regulation may leave their names with the ring clerk in the Registrar's Office in order that she may check their records to determine their eligibility to order the ring. Orders for the rings will be taken between November 23, 1966 and January 4, 1967. These rings will be returned for delivery on or about February 15, 1967. The ring clerk is on duty from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday of each week.

H. L. Heaton, Director of Admissions and Registrar 365t20

The 1966-67 official directory of offices, staff and students is now available. You may send your orders (interdepartmental orders, etc.) to the Student Publications Office, YMCA Building. The price is $1.00 per directory.
