

Aggies Depart Campus For Well-Deserved Rest

FINALS FINALLY FINISHED

These two Aggies have completed their headed home for "about 36 hours of con- final examinations for the fall and are stant sleep."

BOOKS FOR SELL?
Most students are now trad- ing in their old books from the fall for new ones for their spring courses.

LOADIN' UP

It may take a math major to figure out the 36-square-foot space in the trunk of how to put 50 square feet of luggage into this car!

BOOKS FOR SALE?
Once more down the dorm hallway and another semes- ter is history for this Aggie. Chances are that it will take him longer to gather and pack his "stuff" next week than it did this week.

THINKIN' BACK

For some Aggies the semester flew and it dragged for others. Sometimes a brief chat with a buddy will bring back some of the "better" times.

CS Bomber Pilot Receives Medal

Air Force Capt. Johnny F. Lyon of College Station has been awarded the Air Medal at Mather AFB, Calif. He is presently assigned with the Strategic Air Command at Mather. Lyon also wears the Viet Nam Service and National Defense Service medals. The captain's parents reside at 9 Norton Street, College Station. Johnnie R. Lyon is power plant office manager at A&M.

The officer is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan and graduated from Texas A&M in 1959 with degrees in business administration and building products marketing.

Despite fiendish torture dynamic Bic Duo writes first time, every time!

Bic's rugged pair of stick pens wins again in unending war against ball-point skip, clog and smear. Despite horrible punishment by mad scientists, Bic still writes first time, every time. And no wonder. Bic's "Dynamite" Ball is the hardest metal made, encased in a solid brass nose cone. Will not skip, clog or smear no matter what devilish abuse is devised for them by sadistic students. Get the dynamic Bic Duo at your campus store now.

A MATTER OF VIEWPOINT

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What is as thrilling to a child as winter—and a nice fresh snow? But for an adult, shopping or working in winter weather, nothing is more miserable.

This goes for so many things. What looks good to one person looks terrible to another. What one person enjoys doing, another dislikes. What agrees with one disagrees with another.

There is nothing wrong with this. We have a right to our individual likes and dislikes, to our individual opinions. We also have the right to know the basic things in life, the truths that apply to everyone. These are the foundation blocks upon which all else is built. This is the kind of knowledge given to us by the Church.

If you have been thinking that church-goers are conformists—people who believe what they are told and let it go at that—then you've been making a mistake. Because a group of houses are built upon the same firm ground does not mean that each house cannot be separate unto itself. Because a man goes to church does not mean that he is one of a mold. Try it, and see.
