

Freshmen Netters Win Over Navarro

By CHARLES ROWTON
The Texas A&M freshman tennis team defeated a more-experienced Navarro Junior College team in its first try at intercollegiate competition this week. The top five Fish netters competed in the match, with the top three taking singles victories. Jon Ragland, top-seeded freshman from San Angelo, defeated Tom Abercrombie 6-1 and 6-3, second-seeded Dwight Howard topped Steve Smith 6-2 and 6-2, and third-ranked Bruce Crumley outlasted Jerry Hamilton 6-1 and 6-0 as the Fish made a clean sweep of the singles competition. The fourth- and fifth-rated Aggie freshmen, Nathan Finke and Dickie Barton, had victory almost won as they were leading 6-5 in the last set and had the serve, but the Navarro doubles team of Abercrombie and Smith broke service and served out to win by a score of 7-5, 3-6, and 8-6. Coach Omar Smith determined the top five players on the basis of a round robin tournament that was played in the fall. Smith was pleased with the way the match turned out, as it was played in a strong wind. The Fish looked sharp in winning and should continue to do so as the season progresses. The tennis team is the only athletic squad to see action this weekend with the exception of the basketballers. The swimmers and tracksters return to action Feb. 24 and 25.

Ag Bowling Team Drops To Second In League Play

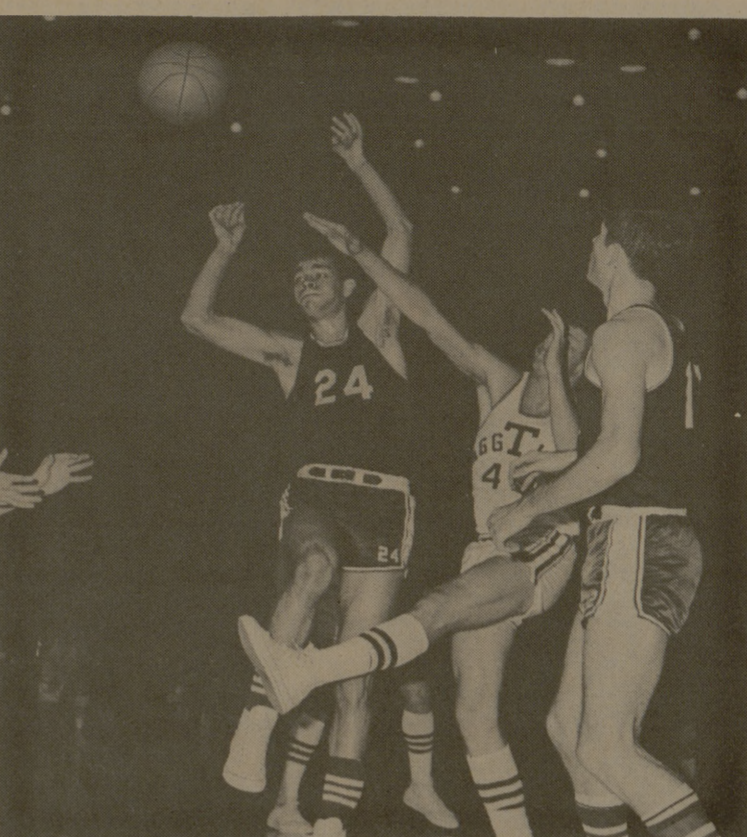

Texas A&M's bowling team dropped to second place in the latest Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference standings, with the University of Houston taking over the top spot. Houston has a 34-14 record, compared to the Aggies' 30 1/2-17 1/2 mark. Arlington State College is in third place, followed by the University of Texas, Southwest Texas State College, Texas Christian University, Trinity and Rice. Latest averages for A&M team members are Perry Kinder, 181; Zelman Joseph, 194; Frederick Becht, 180; Jimmie Guy 181; Robert Brandt, 165, and Frederick White 180. Southwest Texas State College will host the next conference tournament March 11.

Volleyball Games Begin Intramurals Wrestling Is Next

Volleyball and wrestling set a fast and furious pace in intramural classes Monday and Tuesday. Classes A&C began the spring semester with volleyball and, although they looked a little rusty, the action was great. Class B began wrestling matches Monday and will probably continue through next week. Classes A&C will begin wrestling about March 15. The volleyball competition ends for them March 9 and they will finish with the finals before starting wrestling. The Fish will begin their volleyball competition during the finals of classes A&C. After the wrestling and volleyball competition, track and softball get the spotlight until golf starts in April. Golf is a special sport in intramurals. An open golf tournament will be played in April and May on the Texas A&M course.

There will be both a singles and a doubles tournament. Both will be single elimination. All competition will be match play. In doubles, competition will be decided by the high score on a system of allowing one point per hole for low ball and one point per hole for low total.

Nine holes will be the standard match unless all contestants agree before the start of the match to play 18 holes. The intramural office will send each entry a schedule slip, on which the name and room number or address of the opponent will be shown. Each match must then be scheduled by the contestants before the date shown on the schedule slip. Winners should report to the intramural office the day after the match. Matches not reported by that time will be considered a double forfeit. Intramural medals will be awarded to the singles and doubles champions. Brackets for these tournaments will be posted in the Golf Shop and at the intramural office.

LOOSE BALL
Billy Bob Barnett (40) seems to be imitating a shot putter as he is involved in a scramble for the ball in Tuesday night's basketball game with Arkansas. Arkansas players are Gary Stephens (24) and Tommy Rowland.

at center and John Underwood and Sonny Benefield at the guard positions. The visit to West Texas will be a home-coming for six of the Aggie players. Peret, Myatt, Terry Trippet, Dick Rector and the Ditto brothers are all West Texans. Peret on the Aggies first visit to the West this season (Dec. 27—West Texas State) scored 30 points and pulled down 15 rebounds in a fine performance. Benefield and Barnett, along with Peret, all sophomores, continue to be the top three scorers for the season with 245 for Peret, 222 for Benefield and 201 for Barnett. Peret and Barnett top the rebounders, with 177 and 123, respectively. ONE FINAL NOTE, the attendance at Tuesday night's game was 300 less than at the Tech game. Oh well, there are only two home games left. At the rate the attendance is decreasing, there wouldn't be anybody there if there were any more than two games remaining.
