Ags Fall 7-1 At Seguin

By GARY SHERER
Coach Tom Chandler's pre-season problem, pitching, finally became a problem as the Aggies lost to Texas Lutheran at Seguin, Thursday, 7-1.
CHANDLER's pitchers had performed well in the first four Aggie ball games and the A&M mentor began to hope this was a good sign. Thursday afternoon, Aggie starter Walter Varvel had control problems and walked five men in his 2½ innings. Three of these walks were turned into runs by the Bulldogs.

Sophomore Ron Mills came in to relieve Varvel, but the damage had been done, with Texas Lutheran in the lead, 4-0.
Lutheran's starting pitcher, Arlin Kirchner, handcuffed the Aggies until the sixth inning when a single by Mike Arrington, plus a walk to Lou Camilli put runners at first and second with only one out. The next two Aggie batters were retired, however, and the rally was squashed.

IN THE seventh, the Maroon and White plated its only run of the game. Bob Long led off with a triple and after a scratch single by Pete Maida, Long scored on a base hit by Chuck Malitz. With men now at first and third, and no outs, the Aggies were a definite threat. Kirchner, however, settled down and the Aggies were halted from any more scoring. The big stopper was a nice play by Lutheran catcher Ed Oliver who took a bad throw and tagged Maida out trying to score on a grounder.
The Bulldogs pushed three more runs across the plate in the eighth inning on a four-hit barrage. The Aggies could not counter in the top of the ninth, although Malitz delivered his third hit of the game, the Aggies, now 4-1, were retired.
VARVEL TOOK the loss and is now 1-1. Kirchner went all the way for the Bulldogs, whose record is 2-2.
Saturday afternoon, Texas Christian will be the Aggies first Southwest Conference competition for the '67 baseball season.
The Horned Frog nine is now 6-0 as a result of its double-header victory over Texas Tech Wednesday afternoon. Tech, which does not compete in the SWC baseball race, went down by 3-1 and 4-2 scores.
RICE AND TCU were pre-season favorites and wet grounds on Tuesday prevented the two teams from deciding who is the better of the two early in the season.
Among the Frogs' six wins is a 28-0 victory over the University of Dallas. This can't be a determinant of the Frogs potential, as the game was obviously a mismatch.
With SWC play getting underway, the conference experts will now get a chance to see how well their pre-season prognostications pan out.
The game will begin at 2 p.m. at Travis Park in Bryan.
Austin will be the site of the Aggies' next game. They will play Texas Tuesday afternoon for their second SWC test.

Spring Sports

Another Busy Weekend For Spring Athletes

The Texas A&M Track team begins competition in the '67 Border Olympics Saturday afternoon at Laredo.

The event annually attracts many Southwestern colleges. Randy Matson in the shot and discus and Deward Strong in the 120 and 440 hurdles have been the bright spots for the Aggie tracksters thus far this season.

The Border meet will be the third team event the tracksters have entered on their '67 schedule. They lost to Baylor Feb. 24 at College Station and then came in third in a tri-meet at Austin with Texas and Rice.

After two meets, this is a run-down of the Aggies best marks in those meets:

- 440 relay: 41.8 (Gary Abernathy, Jack White, Arie Britt, Tom Cilio) 3/3
- Mile run: 4:27.6 Chris Conley 2/24
- 120 hurdles: 14.5 Deward Strong 3/3

Fish Nine Open Season At Blinn JC

The A&M Fish baseball team opens its season today at Brenham against the Blinn Jr. College nine.
Fish Coach Fred Carlton will probably go with a trio of pitchers. Dave Larson, the all-state product from Brazosport, will lead off on the mound, with Boyd Hadaway from Waco and Dave Benesh, another all-stater from Houston, backing him up.
Probable starting lineup for the Fish will be Tony Lamonte, an all-state player from Houston, at third, Joe Robins from Orange at second, Chris Moser of Dekalb at shortstop, Mike Strauss from Bellville will be at first and Larry Stelley, all-state catcher from El Paso, will be behind the plate.
In the outfield Gary Ramsey of Texas City will be in left, with Hadaway in center and Benesh playing in right.
