Aggies Lose 5-0 At Austin

By GARY SHERER
The Aggies were shut out for the second straight time Tuesday afternoon in a 5-0 loss to Texas at Austin.

Aggie runners have failed to score for the last 20 innings. The Longhorns, behind home runs by rightfielder George Nauret and third baseman Minton White, pecked away at Aggie starting pitcher Rock Thompson and built up a 3-0 lead by the sixth inning.

For Thompson, it was the first earned run off him this season in this his fourth appearance. The Kilgore JC transfer took the loss, as his Aggie teammates could not push across a run for him. Stranding eight men, the Maroon and White were held in check by Longhorn starter Tommy Moore. Moore whiffed seven and walked three for his seven complete innings of pitching. Moore tired in the eighth and walked the first two Aggie batters. Jimmy Raup relieved Moore and shut out the Aggies for the last two innings.

The infamous cliffs of Clark Field were again a part of the game. Nauret's blast for the Longhorns cleared the 370-foot centerfield "wall" and rolled up to the fence on the top of the bank. Bob Long raced up the side from right field but by the time he got to the ball, Nauret was racing for home.

White's blast went over the left field wall, barely missing the foul pole.

Regardless of the circumstances surrounding each home run, they were still well-hit balls as the Longhorns pounded out eight hits for the game.

The Maroon and White banged out five hits, but could only get a rally started in the second inning when Joe Staples led off with a double down the left field line. After Long struck out, Pete Maida laced one up the middle. Staples held up as he thought the ball might be caught and was unable to advance. A fielder's choice and a strikeout followed and the rally was over.

With the eight runners the Aggies left on the bases Tuesday, this makes 25 stranded for the last two games.

The loss makes the Aggies' conference record 0-2 and they must meet unbeaten Rice at Travis Park Friday.

Though they are off to a slow Southwest Conference start, Aggie Coach Tom Chandler is sure that the boys will get some SWC wins as the season progresses.

The Aggies' season record is now 4-3. The win gives Texas a 1-1 SWC mark and a 6-2 season reading.

As mentioned, the Aggies' next game will be at Travis Park in Bryan for a 3 p.m. game with the Rice Owls.

Shorthorns Top Fish Nine Twice

By JERRY GRISHAM
The Texas Shorthorns made a clean sweep of a doubleheader against the A&M Fish as they edged the Aggies 1-0 and 8-7 Tuesday at Bryan's Travis Park.

The Fish now have a season record of 0-3, with all three losses by a single run.

In the first game a triple by Louis Bagwell of Texas scored Pat Amos in the first inning for the only run of the game.

The game was a low-hitting one as the Shorthorns got three hits and the Fish connected for four. The Aggies stranded eight men on the bases.

Texas had two errors, both by Amos. The Fish played errorless ball.

The winning pitcher was Larry Hardy and the loser was Dave Benesh. The loss was Benesh's second. In both losing efforts, Benesh gave up only one run.

Scoring in the second game opened with the Horns scoring on a wild pitch by Aggie pther Dave Larson in the second inning. The Aggies got eight hits in the second game, with four of them coming off the bat of Larry Stelley, who went four for four in the hitting department. Stelley also was responsible for one of two Aggie home runs in the game. Boyd Hadaway hit the second roundtripper for the Fish.

The Shorthorns got nine hits, including two home runs. The Fish had nine men left on base and the Shorthorns had seven.

Both contests were seven-inning affairs, but at the end of the seventh inning of the second game the score was tied at 8-8 and play was forced into extra innings.

An eighth-inning run by the Texas freshmen ended the game.

The Fish will be going for their first win of the season Friday when they play the Rice Owlets in Houston. Game time is set for 3 p.m.

Grapefruit League Baseball Roundup

Jackie Warner blasted a three-run homer in the first inning and went on to drive in a total of five runs to lead the California Angels to a 7-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians in exhibition baseball Tuesday.

Warner's other RBI's came on a double and a single in the game at Tucson, Ariz.

Cesar Tovar's bunt squeezed home Rod Carew with the winning run in the ninth inning to give the Minnesota Twins a 1-0 victory over the New York Mets at Orlando, Fla. It was the first defeat of the spring season for the Mets who had won three straight.

Frank Quilici opened the Minnesota ninth with a base on balls. He went to second on a sacrifice. Carew ran for him and stole third, then came home on Tovar's bunt single.

The New York Yankees shut out the Atlanta Braves 5-0 at West Palm Beach, Fla., and the Chicago White Sox erupted for three runs in the ninth inning to edge the Boston Red Sox 5-4 at Sarasota, Fla.

The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Detroit Tigers 8-2 at Lakeland, Fla., the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Houston Astros 7-4 at Clearwater, Fla., the Washington Senators trimmed the Kansas City A's 8-4 at Pompano Beach, Fla., the Chicago Cubs trimmed the San Francisco Giants 5-4 at Scottsdale, Ariz., and the Cincinnati Reds walloped the St. Louis Cardinals 12-9 at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Elston Howard's double with the bases loaded in the fourth inning helped the Yankees beat the Braves. A triple by Tommie McGraw drove in the winning run for the White Sox in their ninth inning uprising against the Red Sox.
