

Ag Billiards King To Participate In National Play

Mike Brown of Texas A&M has been invited to compete in the International Billiards Championships in Corvallis, Oregon, April 21-22.

Brown, champion of the Association of College Unions' Region 12 Billiards Tournament in Austin March 3-4, is rated second among all the players in the 15-region association. Top rating is accorded a player from Purdue University.

The International Billiards Championships, sponsored by the Association of College Unions, pits the nation's four best college players against one another.

Brown carries an Association of College Unions Billiards average of 4.63. He will leave April 19.

All of Brown's expenses for the tournament will be paid by the Association of College Unions.

Ag Lifters To Compete

The A&M weight-lifting club is planning to enter competition in the Texas Power Lift Championships April 22 in Austin.

Both novice and open classes will be contested in eight different weight classes.

A novice is a participant who has not placed in an open contest. Three novices have been selected to compete: Bill Bownds in the 148 pound class, Leo Holub in the 165 pound class and Bennett Clayton in the 242 pound class.

Sid Robin will compete in the 165 pound class in the open competition.

Anyone interested in trying out for a position on the team should contact Henry Heatherly, club coach and advisor, at the Weight Room in G. Rollie White Coliseum any weekday at 5:30 p.m.

A&M may enter as many as eight novice and eight open lifters. The club welcomes all lifters interested in competing.

Grapefruit League Baseball Roundup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Washington scored four runs in the ninth inning, two on a single by Doug Camilli, and beat Boston 5-1 in an exhibition baseball game Wednesday.

Jim Northrup's bases-loaded single with two out in the ninth drove in the winning run as Detroit edged Kansas City 7-6.

Atlanta scored three runs in the first inning on a walk and three singles and went on to beat Minnesota 4-3. Rich Rollins homered for the Twins.

Lee May hit a single in the bottom of the 12th giving Cincinnati a 1-0 victory over Pittsburgh, Cleveland.

Bob Aspromonte's three-run homer and rookie Don Wilson's strong seven-inning performance sparked Houston to a 10-3 triumph over Los Angeles.

The Chicago Cubs and California fought to a 10-10 tie at Las Vegas, Nev., that was called after nine innings because the sun was so bright the pitchers and fielders could hardly see the ball. Billy Williams drove in five runs for the Cubs with two homers.

Astro Facts

Whitey Ford, the New York Yankee southpaw, who has amassed 234 victories in his illustrious career, is slated to start Saturday's night game in the Astrodome in the middle of a three-game series between the Yankees and the Houston Astros. He will be opposed on the mound by Chris Zachary of the Astros.

Righthander Jim Bouton is scheduled to start Friday's night game against Houston's Larry Dierker, and lefthander Fritz Peterson will go Sunday against Don Wilson or Danny Coombs of the Astros. Peterson, a 24-year-old sophomore, was the Yankee's winningest pitcher in 1966 with 12 wins.

Ford, who has undergone a series of operations on his left arm, has had a good spring and is looked on to fit into the Yankee starting rotation after a disappointing 2-5 record in 1966.

Friday night will be "Kids Night" with all children, 16 or under and accompanied by an adult, receiving a one-dollar reduction on box and reserved seats.

Saturday night will feature a pre-game home run hitting contest between Mickey Mantle and Eddie Mathews, two of the all-time home run kings.
