Houston HS Ace Inked By Metcalf

Texas A&M basketball coach Shelby Metcalf has added another pick to his recruiting crop in Bill Cooksey, 6-2 1/2 of Houston Sam Houston High.

Cooksey posted a 17.2 scoring average for 30 games as his club carded a 20-10 record.

He hit on 51.2 percent of his field goal attempts and 68 percent of his free throws. In addition, he pulled in 226 rebounds.

He made the Nacogdoches all-tournament team and was on Houston's first-team All-City squad.

Aggie Nine At Houston

By GARY SHERER

The Aggies are in Houston today for a 2:30 baseball game with the Rice Owls.

SATURDAY afternoon the same teams will go again to complete their season series.

Rocky Thompson is on the mound in today's game and is opposed by the Owl's Ronnie Henson. In Saturday's match, either Rick Schwartz or Pat Rozypal will get the starting nod from Coach Tom Chandler. Rice will counter with left-hander Ray Hooten.

The two-game series will be a crucial one for both teams. The Aggies and Rice are currently the last two teams in the Southwest Conference standings and a double win is a must for each.

Rice is now at 14-4 and Coach Doug Osburn's crew has a chance for their best record ever, even though they are sitting in last place in the league.

THE OWLS were predicted to have the best staff of pitchers in the league at the start of the season. Experts said that it was a must for the pitchers to come through as the Owls hitting was not above-average. Lately, the Owl pitchers have been having their troubles.

In the double loss to Southern Methodist last weekend, Rice veteran Bill Palmer came up with a "hitch" in his shoulder and he was forced to leave the game. It is doubtful the senior right-hander will see service against the Maroon and White.

Henson, although starting today's game, was ill the first part of the week and Osburn hopes he is ready for today.

The Owls' hitting attack is led by sophomore shortstop Billy Costa with a .367 mark.

COACH Chandler's charges have won their last two SWC tests after losing their first three conference games. The wins have come over league-leading SMU, 10-5, and Baylor, 5-3.

The Aggies are now 9-6 on the year, after their two-game split with Texas Tech earlier this week.

Catcher Joe Staples is currently the leading hitter among the starters. The junior backstop is hitting at a .365 reading, with shortstop Mike Arrington close behind at .338. Pete Maida has snapped out of his slump and is back up to .292.

THE BIGGEST improvement with the stick has come from Long. The football halfback brought his average up to a very slow start.

In the pitching department, reliever Bob Sanders has been effective in his 24 2/3 innings with a 1.82 ERA and he has struck a team-high 21, while walking only nine. Thompson, the workhorse of the staff, has had 38 2/3 innings and sports a 1.82 ERA and has a 3-1 record. Sanders is 2-0.

Following the Rice series Aggies will play a home series with the Houston Cougars on Monday at Houston and Wednesday at Travis Park.

GOLF

The Texas A&M golf squad takes on TCU in Fort Worth Friday in its second SWC match of the season.

A&M beat Texas Tech, 5 1/2 - 1/2, in its league opener last Monday.

In that win Lee McDowell led the Aggies with a four-under-par 66. Billy Wade and Terry Archer shot even-par 70's while John Buffin had a 74.

TENNIS

Texas A&M plays SMU in a Southwest Conference tennis match on the Aggie courts at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

A&M's players likely will be Pete Faust, Joe Tillerson, Marcus Beleck and Terry Smith.

The Aggies lost their SWC opener to Rice, 4-2 last Tuesday. Tillerson missed that match because of illness.

FISH BASEBALL

The Fish baseball team hosts the Rice Owlets at Travis Park Saturday at 2 p.m. in their second meeting of the season.

In their first game the Fish defeated the Owlets, 12-2.

Clay Named As Boxer Of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay was named Fighter of the Month by Ring Magazine Thursday, and his chief sparring mate, Jimmy Ellis, moved into the top 10 of the heavyweight division for the first time.

Clay earned the honor by knocking out Zora Folley in the seventh round of their title fight March 22. It was Clay's ninth successful title defense.

Ellis, who works out with Clay prior to the champion's bouts, was made the 10th ranking contender after he posted a one-round knockout over Johnny Persol in a preliminary to the Clay-Folley fight.
