

Spring Football Training—1967

Student trainers try to trip up a halfback candidate at the end of a running drill.

A halfback candidate starts off on the maze of blocking dummies in the running drill.

Edd Hargett takes a snap from center during a passing drill session.

Head Coach Gene Stallings observes the progress being made at a workout.

A place-kicking candidate practices with student assistant Gary Kovar. Below, the "maroon" offense goes through some running drills.

The "maroon" defense takes a break in practice and discusses training methods with the coaches.

"Hit em hard" is stressed in this tackling drill for defensive back candidates.

Below, "Up on the bicycle" drill starts off the workouts each afternoon.