Students Elect Campbell President Of Senate

By BILL ALDRICH
Battalion Staff Writer

More than 2,000 students turned out at the polls last Thursday to elect Gerald Campbell to head the Student Senate.

By a margin of 1,028 to 897, the social fraternity issue was defeated as a highlight of the election.

Jack Myers, election committee chairman, said that the Corps of Cadets cast 1,043 votes, civilians cast 978 for the total of 2,021. He went on to say the Corps voted against the fraternity issue, the civilians were split and the vet school was against it.

CAMPBELL WON the presidency with 999 votes, crushing Francis Bourgeois by 330 ballots. Ernest J. Pena ran third with 217 votes.

In the presidential race for the Civilian Student Council, Lewis Griffin Venator won unopposed with 494 votes.

In other Student Senate races, Bill E. Carter rolled up 330 votes in smashing two opponents for the vice presidential nod. David Maddox polled 627 votes, while Charles A. Brown tallied 256.

JOSEPH PAUL WEBBER rolled up the largest amount of votes of anybody in the election with his 1,412, running unopposed for the parliamentary position.

The recording secretary office went to Robert Edward Moreau with 682 votes. Mark Fairchild was runner-up with 456 and Larry Bowles tallied 312.

Clarence Daugherty rolled up an impressive win for the chairmanship of the Issues Committee. He had 796 votes to 524 for Jack Coleman, while Charles Kindel garnered 346.

DON McLERoy scored the most lopsided win of the day in the race for Student Life Committee chairman. McLeroy had 930 votes while John Parr had 437 and Donald Swofford had 326.

The new Public Relations Committee chairman is Reese Brown. He defeated Dewey Helmcamp III, 882-730.

Welfare Committee chairman went to John H. Daly, who defeated James A. Mobley in the closest race of the day, 798-738.

IN OTHER Civilian Student

Council races George Nathan Waline defeated Wayne Gosnell for the vice presidency. Waline garnered 462 to Gosnell's 233 write-in votes.

George L. DuPont won the office of secretary-treasurer of the Council by getting 25 write-in votes. No one filed for the office.

Myers commended Gosnell "on his fine effort as a write-in candidate." He went on to say he hoped "this defeat would not keep him from keeping up his excellent work."

MYERS ALSO announced that filing for the Student Senate college representatives election will close this Friday. Students can file in their respective colleges at the Memorial Student Center's Student Programs Office. The election will be May 16.

The election results were delayed because of a mix up in voting at the Veterinary Medicine School. Myers said that there was no apparent reason for the mix up, but the vets did not vote until Friday morning. This delayed the publication of the results until late Friday.

Adams Is Named Head Yell Leader

Neal W. Adams of Tyler has been designated head yell leader at Texas A&M for 1967-68.

Adams, a junior marketing major, was selected by a committee headed by Civilian Student Counselor Bill Presnal.

VIETNAM

U. S. Marines fought North Vietnamese army regulars in South Vietnam's northwest corner Monday in a drive for high ground controlling major infiltration routes from the North Vietnamese line through the demilitarized zone and Laos. New ground action flared up also in the central highlands.

WASHINGTON

Congress passed a resolution extending the no-strike period in the dispute between the railroads and six shopcraft unions for 47 more days.

The Senate Republican Policy Committee accused President Johnson Monday of assuming enormous discretionary powers on the Vietnam war and asking congressional approval only after he acts.

NATIONAL

Michigan Governor George Romney took his unannounced drive to the presidency to Atlanta where he opposed a U. S. pullout from Vietnam, and drew a mixed response from college audiences.

Dr. C. H. Groneman Resigns

Dr. Chris H. Groneman, Industrial Education Department head and Athletic Council chairman at Texas A&M, announced his resignation Monday.

The resignation becomes effective August 31.

Dr. Groneman said he has accepted a position as professor and coordinator of industrial education in the technical and vocational education department at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu.

"I REGRET leaving Texas A&M, but the greatly reduced teaching load at Hawaii will give me much more time to write books," Groneman commented. "I am a consulting editor to McGraw Hill Book Company for a series in industrial education. And I am an author or co-author of four of their titles. Also, I am the author or co-author of ten titles with other book firms."

A&M PRESIDENT Earl Rudder lauded Groneman for his contributions in both the academic and athletic areas.

"Dr. Groneman has made great contributions in an academic way and heads one of the finest departments of industrial education in the nation," he pointed out. "In addition, he represented Texas A&M in a splendid manner in athletics."

Groneman has been head of the Industrial Education Department since 1948. He was named acting head of Industrial Education Department in 1942.

DR. GRONEMAN has been A&M's Athletic Council chairman since 1954 when Paul (Bear)

Bryant took over as athletic director and head football coach.

"I enjoyed my assignment on the council, the opportunity of serving with the very fine people of our staff," he continued. "And the relationship with the Southwest Conference was most enjoyable."

GRONEMAN was vice president of the National Collegiate Athletic Association from 1963 to 1967, and president of the Southwest Conference from 1963 to 1965.

"My regrets about leaving the Athletic Council concerns the fine association with other members, the administration, particularly President Rudder, and the fine general attitude displayed by coaches of the different sports and Athletic Director Bones Irvin," he said.

Book Plan Backed By Student Group

Texas A&M's Student Senate is underwriting a project to send books to Aggies serving in Vietnam.

Donald G. Rapp of Galveston, project chairman, said several packages of books will be mailed Thursday and should be in the hands of the troops within a week.

The project is the result of requests from front-line Aggies for reading material to pass away the time during lulls in the fighting.

Rapp, a senior architectural student and member of A&M's Corps of Cadets, said he hopes to include 200 books in the Thursday mailing.

LONG WAIT

Students prepare for all-night stay in hall outside Housing Office waiting for room reservations to begin Monday morning. Some waited for nearly 16 hours.
