

Baltimore Drafts Small College Ace

NEW YORK (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets drafted Earl Monroe, the nation's top scorer last season and a Little All-America, today after Detroit formally made All-America Jimmy Walker the No. 1 pick in the college draft by the National Basketball Association. The Bullets then announced they had signed the 6-foot-3 Monroe who also had been drafted by the Pittsburgh club of the newly formed American Basketball Association. Monroe, of Winston-Salem State, North Carolina, had averaged 41.5 points a game last season to lead the NCAA's Small College Division scorers. Walker, the Providence All-America, had led the major college scorers with a 30.4 average. The Pistons announced Walker's signing for an estimated four-year contract for upwards of $250,000 Tuesday.

The other picks in the first rounds followed in this order:
3. Clem Haskins, Western Kentucky, by Chicago.
4. Sonny Dove, St. John's N.Y., by Detroit, using Los Angeles' selection rights.
5. Walt Frazier, Southern Illinois, by New York.
6. Al Tucker, Oklahoma Baptist, by Seattle.
7. Pat Riley, Kentucky, by San Diego.
8. Tom Workman, Seattle, by St. Louis.
9. Mel Daniels, New Mexico, by Cincinnati.
10. Dave Lattin, Texas Western, by San Francisco.
11. Mal Graham, New York University, by Boston.
12. Craig Raymond, Brigham Young, Philadelphia.

Hartack Still Has No Horse

By ORLO ROBERTSON
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bill Hartack, horse racing's most controversial figure with an enviable riding record, found himself in the middle again Wednesday. It involved which horse he'll ride in the 93rd running of the Kentucky Derby Saturday.

Frank Childs, 79-year-old dean of Kentucky Derby trainers who saddled Tomy Lee, the 1959 winner, said the four-time national riding champion and winner of four Kentucky Derbies in seven tries will be aboard Perne Grisson's California conditioned Dr. Isby.

Earlie Fires worked Dr. Isby Wednesday morning, going one mile in 1:41 3-5.

Hal Steele Jr., trainer of Derby Trial winner Barbs Delight, said he wants Hartack and the veteran jockey has promised to give him an answer Thursday morning before the entries for the Derby are made officially.

"The decision is not mine to make," said Hartack after he was seen talking with Childs. He later conferred with Steele, who also owns Barbs Delight along with Gene Spalding and Guy Huguélet of Lexington, Ky.

Being in the middle or at odds with the press is nothing new for the native of Johnstown, Pa.

In his younger days he was known as Willie. He later insisted he be addressed as Bill.

He repeatedly has refused to talk with newspapermen and three years ago held up an interview with writers for 30 minutes while he signed autographs after winning his fourth Derby with Northern Dancer.

Hartack had expressed a desire to ride Dr. Isby after the Detroit-owned colt finished fourth in the California Derby April 22. But when Barbs Delight won the Derby Trial he let friends know he would like very much to ride Barbs Delight in Saturday's $125,000-added race.

Post time Saturday will be 4:30 p.m., EST, with nationwide television by CBS down for 4-5 p.m., EST.

Astro Facts

The Houston Astros have set Thursday, May 18 as "Kid Benefit Night" at the Astrodome when the San Francisco Giants open a seven game home stand.

This year's benefit game will be highlighted with the appearance of Ted Williams, all-time great and baseball Hall of Famer, in a special pre-game show.

The "Kid Benefit Night" is held annually to raise money for youth baseball teams in the Houston area and proceeds from the game are turned over to Rotary Activities, the sponsoring organization for youth baseball in Houston.
