

Terrell Called Best Of Lot In Tournament

Ernie Terrell is called "the best of the lot" in the new eight-man World's Heavyweight Boxing Championship tournament which gets under way Saturday afternoon, August 5, in the Astrodome, and the Jimmy Ellis-Leotis Martin bout is termed "possibly the most interesting and exciting fight."

These are the evaluations of Sports Illustrated in its new "size-up" of the scramble for Cassius Clay's title as champion. SI's expert, Tex Maule, calls the tournament a good one, and terms complaints against the tourney as "sour grapes."

Terrell is set to fight Thad Spencer in one 12-rounder, then Ellis and Martin make up the second part of the twin bill. Winners then are to fight, according to SI, (November 11 and December 2 in the Astrodome against victors of the Floyd Patterson-Jerry Quarry and Karl Mildner-Oscar Bonavena brawls.

All permanent cushioned upholstered seats in the Astrodome will be just $5.00 while temporary ringside seats will be $10 and $25. Children 12 and under can get the $5 seats for $2.50.

SI calls Terrell, "at 28 . . . mature without having lost anything to age."

Region IX AAU Swim Meet Qualifies Houston Swimmer

Only one swimmer qualified for the National AAU competition Saturday in the Region IX Swimming and Diving Championships sponsored by the College Station Swim Time in Texas A&M's Wofford Cain Pool.

Cynthia Ward of Houston, swimming unattached, met the National AAU qualifying time in the girls' 200-meter backstroke by swimming the event in 2:39.7.

The Shamrock-Hilton Club of Houston raced away with the team trophy over a field of 10 clubs from Dallas, San Antonio, Waco, College Station and Houston.

The College Station meet was the first of several in which Region IX swimmers can qualify for the men's and women's nationals at Oak Park, Md., and Philadelphia, Pa. in August.

College Station Swim Team placed in four relay events and local boys placed in five individual events.

Playoffs Are Set For Little League

Bryan-College Station area Little League allstar teams will battle out a champion July 19-24 which will have a shot at sectional and district playoffs to be held here.
