

8,000 Spaces Set For Campus Cars

Almost 8,000 parking spaces will be available for students, faculty and staff this fall at Texas A&M.

Parking facilities include new spaces for 660 cars in an area just west of the main campus. Two rows of cars can be parked in the area running from the A&M baseball field to the overpass at Farm Road 60.

Campus Security Chief Ed Powell estimates that 50 per cent of the students who enroll at A&M in the fall will bring cars.

A&M Police Get New Role

Texas A&M Security Chief Ed Powell and his 10-man force will be commissioned peace officers Friday morning under new authority granted by the Texas Legislature.

The ceremonies mark the state's first implementation of Senate Bill No. 162 which authorizes campus security personnel to enforce all general and criminal laws of the State of Texas.

Chief Powell said the ceremonies, set for 10 a.m. in Room 205 of the Military Science Building, will be performed during the closing session of a week-long training school for 65 campus security officers from throughout the state.

The training session, first of two planned by the Police Training Division of A&M's Engineering Extension Service, emphasizes the campus security officer's new responsibilities and authority.

In essence, the new authority elevates the campus security officer from the status of night watchman to a full officer of the law, Chief Powell explained.

A&M President Earl R. Will officially commission new peace officers, with County Judge W. C. Davis presiding over the ceremony.

In addition to Chief Powell, university personnel to be commissioned as peace officers are Assistant Chief Glenn (cq) Bolton, Sergeant Olan Armstrong, Sergeant A. Maddox and Emmitt E. Hubbard R. Henry, Walter Walker, Walter L. Rice, Gossett and Thurman H. well.

Fallout Theater Schedules Plays For Friday, Saturday

Three one-act plays featuring Bryan and College Station actors and actresses are set Friday and Saturday nights in Texas A&M's Fallout Theater.

Cynthia Smith, a senior dramatics minor, is the director for "A Well-Remembered Voice," "Two's Company," and "Eliza and the Lexicon."

Written by J. M. Berry, "A Well-Remembered Voice" spotlights a quartet of Aggie Players, including Chick Rose, Lee Wolfson, Sandra Rose and Jim Weyhenmeyer.

"Two's Company" by Maryjean Perry has a cast of three—Heather Gaines, Richard Stewart and Scott Wilson.

Cast for "Eliza and the Lexicon," written by Robert A. Greene, includes Judy Elmquist, Richard Pate and Becky Upham.

Curtain for the first play is 8 p.m.

Roger Williams has charge of makeup for the plays.
