Behind The Scenes

Texas A&M's Mark Weaver could be making football history this season as the first "two-number" player in the annals of the game. He has been assigned 79 and 82. He'll wear 79 at either offensive guard or tackle and will wear 82 when playing defensive end. He's a top utility man in the offensive line and may see service at guard, tackle and end. The rules (put in to stymie the tackle-eligible play) necessitate two numbers. He'll change jerseys on the sideline when necessary. . . .

Best all-around athlete on the Aggie football squad is wingback Bob Long of Paris. He was second-team all-SWC as an outfielder in baseball last spring, is a southpaw golfer who shoots in the 70s and after his 5:06 mile run he has track Coach Charlie Thomas eying him enviously. . . . Strong end Tom Buckman, 6-4 and 214, was an all-state basketball player in high school at Fort Worth Carter-Riverside. . . .

Jerry Campbell, junior letterman linebacker-rover from Center, Tex., is president of the Texas A&M student body this year. . . . There are a lot of other leaders on the squad. Grady Allen, Harvey Aschenbeck, Campbell, Lynn Fister, Carl Gough, Curley Hallman, Jack Kovar, Waymond Lightfoot and Charlie Riggs all were captains of their high school teams. . . . Tom Chaffe, Danny Eckermann, Roy Gunnels, Jim Piper and John Turney were presidents of either their high school student bodies or senior classes. Buster Adami and Roy Gunnels were valedictorians of their graduating classes. . . .

Old school ties are at least two-fold in the A&M-SMU encounter. SMU tackle John Kimbrough is the son of Aggie great "Jarrin' John Kimbrough," all-America fullback on the 1939 national champions at A&M. . . . Aggie sophomore back Barney Harris of San Antonio is the son of Ben Harris who was captain and all-SWC in basketball at SMU in 1947. . . . Back in the 1918-20 era, Texas A&M won 18 straight in which the foes didn't score a point. . . . the last game of 1918, 10 games in 1919 and the first 7 in 1920. . . .

Junior QB Edd Hargett set a school record as a sophomore last year when he threw 265 passes. He also set a school record with 132 completions and another school mark with 1,532 yards passing and still another with 10 TD tosses. . . . The strong side of A&M's offensive line will average 227 with guard Maurice Moorman at 241, tackle Rolf Krueger at 227 and end Tom Buckman at 214. Moorman is 6-5 while Krueger and Buckman are both 6-4. . . .

Athletic Director Barlow (Bones) Irvin was a three-year letterman (1923-24-25) and was an all-SWC tackle in 1925. . . . Associate athletic director Marvin Tate also lettered three years at guard (1952-53-54) . . . and head coach Gene Stallings was a three-year letterman end (1954-55-56) and was all-SWC in 1955.
