

Fighting Irish And Trojans Are Top Picks

NEW YORK (AP)—It's an old bar room axiom that a good big man can always lick a good little man—a theory sometimes disproved by Bear Bryant's "pore little boys" at Alabama—but it is our yardstick in choosing Notre Dame, Southern California, Syracuse and Miami to win the weekend features in college football.

Notre Dame 27, California 10: The starting Irish tackles weigh 270 and 260 pounds; a 270-pound tackle, Kevin Hardy, has been shifted to end and the Baby Bombers—Terry Hanratty and Jim Seymour—are back.

Southern California 21, Texas 14: The going scale for a Trojan lineman is 250 pounds and Mike Hull, the fullback, is 6-foot-4, 220 pounds and runs the 100 in 10 seconds.

Syracuse 19, Baylor 6: The Orange doesn't have Floyd Little but has Larry Csonka, 6-3, 230, and a big memory—the loss a year ago.

Miami, Fla. 19, Northwestern 7: They call the Miami defense the GREEN Machine—the biggest cog is end Ted Hendricks, 6-7, 229.

UCLA 27, Pittsburgh 0: The Bruins have a soccer-style placekicker named Zenon Andrusyshyn. They won't need him.

Arkansas 20, Oklahoma State 13: Ronny South the Porker quarterback, learned a lot from Fred Marshall and Jon Brittenum.

Washington 19, Wisconsin 17: The swing is the thing with the Huskies, whose Evil I features a five-man backfield.

Alabama 33, Florida State 7: The only speeding tickets Ken Stabler will get is for moving the first down sticks.

Penn State 18, Navy 10: Quarterback Tom Sherman has a pair of good targets in Jack Curry and Ted Kwalick.

Louisiana State 10, Rice 7: This one is always close and an edge this time to Baton Rouge hysteria.

Michigan 20, Duke 14: Dick Vidmer and a heftier defense given the edge over Duke's towering Al Woodall in a passing duel.

Illinois 19, Florida 12: The Illini will be out to prove something for their new coach, Jim Valek.

Giants' Fran Bugs Dallas

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—When the New York Giants got Frank Tarkenton it presented problems to the Dallas Cowboys, Coach Tom Landry said at his weekly press conference Wednesday.

"A man with Tarkenton's scrambling ability always gives us the most trouble," Landry declared, meanwhile predicting that his team would win the National Football League game with the Giants here Sunday.

Tarkenton was acquired by New York from Minnesota, where he had refused to play. And Don Smith, publicity director of the Giants, said it was one of four things that had made New York a much better team than last year when it lost 12 games, including 52-7 and 17-7 defeats by Dallas.

Landry said there had been a general strengthening of teams in the Eastern Conference except for St. Louis. "Uncle Sam took the sting out of the Cardinals," he added.

"We won't have an easy year—it will be a tough one indeed," the Cowboys coach said. "I think New York will be one of the toughest. It is much better coordinated. Note the Giants intercepted five passes last week against the Cardinals."

Prospects of bad weather because of Hurricane Beulah have held the crowd estimate down but Cowboy officials predicted that if it cleared, 65,000 would be in the Cotton Bowl for the 1:30 p.m. CDT kickoff.

Waters Named To Eco Staff

Alan Rufus Waters, a Rice University candidate for the Ph.D., has joined the Texas A&M University Economics Department as an instructor.

Dr. M. L. Greenhut, Economics Department head, said Waters spent the past year at the University College of Nairobi in Kenya, doing research for his dissertation.
