Baylor Frosh Drop Aggie Fish, 14-7

By JERRY GRISHAM

A pass interception in the end zone by Baylor's Mike McCaulley with 14 seconds to go in the game last night turned back the Aggie Fish and allowed the Cubs to take back to Waco a 14-7 victory.

The fish had taken the ball on their own 20 yard line with 1:31 to go after a Cub field goal attempt from the 19 had fallen wide of the posts.

Trailing 14-7, Aggie quarterback Rocky Self took the Fish to the air and, in four passes and one keep for nine yards, moved the Ags to the Cub eight. Three more passes went incomplete and then on fourth down McCaulley flashed in front of A&M's Mike DeNiro to steal Self's last ditch effort.

An A&M fumble in the first quarter set up the first Baylor score

Self passed to Mitch Robertson for 12 yards to the Aggie 44 where he was knocked free of the ball. The Cubs' Ed Marsh covered the ball and set up the Cubs in Aggie territory.

Alternating between keeping the ball himself and handing off to his big fullback Randy Cooper, quarterback Mike Beane moved Baylor down to the Fish six yard line

On the 11th play after recovering the fumble and a minute and a half deep in the second quarter, Beane kept around left end for six yards and six points. Dennis Whitley put the seventh point on the scoreboard

With four minutes left in the first half, the Fish were forced to punt on fourth down from their own 42. Steve Parshall took the kick on the 17 of Baylor and streaked down a corridor of would-be tacklers for 83 yards and a touchdown.

The third quarter was a defensive duel with neither team mustering enough power to score. The Cubs were bottled inside their own 40 for the entire quarter. The Aggies penetrated inside the Baylor 30 yard line twice during the quarter, the deepest being to the 27 but were stopped when they couldn't make the necessary yardage on fourth down.

With 12:41 remaining in the football game, the Fish scored on a 49-yard pass from Self to DeNiro. DeNiro had faked his defender on an inside cut and then went down the right sideline and was all alone when he pulled in the pass to trot across the goal line.

Phil Dickerson pulled the Fish to within seven points of the Cubs as he booted the extra point through the uprights.

After the Aggies' touchdown, the Cubs played a game of ball control. At one point they kept the football for six and a half minutes before giving it up to the Fish for their last-minute drive. Statistic-wise, the Fish led the Cubs. The Aggies had 19 first downs, 12 of them coming by passes. The Cubs rushed for six of their 10 first downs.

ggies Are The Favorites TCU Saturday Night

By GARY SHERER

Worth today looking for the second step on their road back. Fort Worth's Amon Carter Stadium will be the site of the Maroon and White's 63rd meeting with Texas Christian Saturday night

THE AGGIES (1-4) will be hoping to make it two in a row, with the first being that last second victory over Texas Tech last Saturday night at Lubbock. The Horned Frogs were off last week, so their scouts got a good look at the Aggies. From reports of the game at Fort Worth, they were impressed by the Aggies' performance.

TCU is still winless, as they have dropped their first three ball games. This will be the Frogs' first home game, as the three losses came on the road (Iowa, Georgia Tech and Arkansas)

The Frog attack has been led most recently by sophomore quarterback Danny Carter. Firstyear head coach Fred Taylor installed Carter permanently after senior P. D. Shabay was decided too inconsistent.

Ross Montgomery and Kenny Post lead the running attack for the Frogs. Up front offensively, The Aggies leave for Fort center E. A. Gresham and sophomore guard James Ray have performed well for the Frogs.

ON DEFENSE, tackles Danny Cross and Mike Bratcher and ceived praise from their coaches. Coach Gene Stallings will try to keep the two line-ups that finished the Tech game. Only change right now will be Jimmy Piper in place of Gaddy Wells at defensive end.

Halfback Wendell Housley should be ready for more work after recovering from his shoulder injuries. Definitely out for the game is defensive halfback Vance Brack. The sophomore from Amarillo suffered a broken collar bone in Wednesday's scrimmage. Middle guard Winston Beam may be out also because of a knee re-injury.

THE AGGIES have been installed at 61/2 point favorites for this their third Southwest Conference game. A big factor for the Aggies will be punter Steve O'Neal. The junior from Hearne wants that

10th person.

We want impatient, restless, alert, ambitious people who look on challenge as an opportunity... who thrive on added responsibility, who want to hit management level by the time they're 30.

If you think this is blue-sky promise, consider this fact: our present management age level at Sherman, Texas is-you guessed it-30. While you're moving your way to the top, you'll be getting a top salary and benefits too important to be called fringe.

Interested? We have key openings right now for HIGH SPEED MACHINERY DEVELOPMENT ENGINEERS and MAINTENANCE ENGINEERING SUPERVISORS for the design and development of high speed machinery and the maintenance of related equipment. Other openings also exist in manufacturing, systems purchasing and finance. (Please remember, these are starting assignments. You'll go as fast and far as you want!)
