Hilburn Joins Staff Of U.S. Foreign Office

Paul W. Hilburn Jr. of Dimmitt, who received his Master of Arts Degree in history this summer at Texas A&M University, has been appointed to the U. S. Foreign Service.

Hilburn has reported to Washington, D. C., where he will undergo 27 weeks of training before being assigned.

Dr. J. M. Nance, History and Government Department head at A&M, praised Hilburn as a man of sound principles.

"Hilburn has done a good job as a graduate and undergraduate student in history," Nance remarked. "I'm sure he will render an excellent service with our State Department."

As an undergraduate at A&M, Hilburn earned distinguished student status three times and was a distinguished military graduate in Air Force ROTC. He earned a Scottish Rite Foundation of Texas Scholarship to George Washington University where he studied public administration.

While at George Washington, Hilburn worked half-time in the Presidential Papers Section of the Library of Congress.

After a year in Washington, Hilburn was called to active duty as an Air Force officer. He served in base comptrollers offices in Japan and California for more than two years and is now a first lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

PEACH QUEEN VISITS TEXAS A&M As you can tell, Texas A&M Corps of Cadets Colonel Lonnie Minze of Houston isn't exactly unhappy about his duty as escort to Texas Peach Queen Nila Norton of Seminole. The queen visited A&M during the recent 15th annual Peach and Plum Growers Conference. The 18-year-old, 5 feet 8-inch, brown-eyed brunette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Norton.
