

Ag Booters Top Shriners

The Texas Aggie soccer team topped Shriners College Saturday afternoon at College Station. The 3-1 victory was the Ag booters' fourth of the year, as well as a conference victory. They have lost two, but only one of the setbacks counts in conference play.

All soccer home games are played on the drill field in front of the Memorial Student Center. The Aggies are an improved soccer team this year and all Aggies are asked to come out for their games.

In November, the Aggies will participate in a tournament in Austin that will include the host team from Texas, and teams from Stanford and Houston.

Interest in soccer is growing in the U.S. as the CBS network, who televised professional soccer games this year, has renewed their contract for another year.

Picking The Oldies

By GARY SHERER

While browsing through the Southwest Conference record book, I stumbled across some wild sounding football terms of yesteryear.

I wonder if there were dreamers who picked the results of their games? Here's some of the old picks from 1914, along with some from 1967.

- TEXAS A&M 27, BAYLOR 14
Webb City High over Quachita
- TEXAS 19, RICE 14
Chiloco Indians over Cape Gird Normal
- NOTRE DAME 27, MICHIGAN STATE 24
Haskell Indians over Kansas City Medics
- TENNESSEE 23, LSU 16
Ball High School over Waxahachie A.C.
- MIAMI (FLA.) 22, AUBURN 20
Sam Houston Normal over Toby's Business School
- COLORADO 28, OKLAHOMA STATE 14
111th Ambulance Co. over First Texas Artillery
- OKLAHOMA 22, MISSOURI 21
Dixie U. over Joplin High
- SYRACUSE 20, PENN STATE 15
Ream Fly Field over Radio School
- MISSISSIPPI 21, HOUSTON 14
Norman Navy over King Fisher College
- MINNESOTA 24, MICHIGAN 6
Britten Training School over Houston Heavyweights

Chances are, the way our predictions have been going, all the 1914 picks would have been wrong. However, with a season's record of 25-17-0 things couldn't get much worse.

Tide-Vol Clash Top Attendance

NEW YORK. (AP)—For the first time this year, the Big Ten failed to draw the largest college football crowd of the week.

The distinction went to the Southeastern Conference for the 71,849 crowd at Birmingham, Ala., that saw Tennessee upset Alabama, snapping the Tide's unbeaten streak at 25 games.

It was the first time Alabama paced the country in attendance.

Bears Are Tough, Stallings Reports

By JERRY GRISHAM

No one was more surprised than Coach Gene Stallings Tuesday when he was told during his weekly press conference that the Aggies were 11-point favorites over Baylor in Saturday's football game.

"That is ridiculous," he said. "That just goes to show that the people who decide on the point spread don't know what they're talking about."

Stallings emphasized that the Aggies were not taking the Bears lightly by any stretch of the imagination.

"They are going to present us with a bunch of problems," he noted. "For one thing, I know they outweigh us 15 to 18 pounds per man."

He said that both the Baylor offense and their defense have the personnel to get the job done. He pointed out that in Charles Wilson, the Baylor fullback, the Bears have a big strong runner and he has a line in front of him which blocks well.

On defense the Bears have Greg Pipes who Stallings calls "probably the best defensive lineman in this part of the country."

Concerning last week's game at Fort Worth against TCU, Stallings said that after viewing the film of the game he thought the Aggies had played better than his earlier estimate.

After the game Saturday night he had said that the team had not played well but the film showed that the Aggies had good effort.

Stallings singled out Harvey Aschenbeck and Bill Hobbs as the standouts for the Aggies on defense. Aschenbeck had the most tackles and assists with 17.

Hobbs had 15 tackles and assists but his major contributions to the A&M effort came as he swiped two TCU interceptions, one of which was a 102-yard touchdown return. He returned a second one 32 yards.

Hobbs now leads the Southwest Conference in interceptions with five steals and return yardage of 157 yards and two touchdowns.

On offense Stallings called the combination of Wendell Housley at fullback and Larry Stegent at tailback "a good combination."

New Conference Is Proposed

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The possibility of forming an athletic association was discussed by 11 Southwestern and Western independent universities Tuesday at a meeting here.

Under discussion were common problems and the need for a greater association in athletics. Those attending agreed an association along the lines of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference would be founded to improve athletics at independent schools in the region.

Preliminary fact-finding committees were formed to prepare reports on formation of a constitution and operating procedures, central office location, a survey of competitive sports and financing.

Schools represented included the Air Force Academy, Creighton University, Centenary College, the University of Denver, Hardin-Simmons University, Portland University, Seattle University, Utah State and West Texas State.

It was indicated Loyola University of the South, Oklahoma City University, Tulane University and Southern Nevada University expressed interest in plans, but did not attend the conference.

Another meeting is scheduled prior to the NCAA meetings in New York City early in January.

I sang my harp on the sun's deck
Here at the water in the cool unblossomed year,
And the light notes clung at my hair roots
Like bird cries gathering.

All the day's time leaned
Into lengthening shadows
And moments clung like fresh leaves
On water.

Wind crossed the pond
Leaving stripes and crosses
As though it rolled and cast down,
Cast down its shape for vision.

Wisteria hung for lavender
In a blossom of perfume,
And on the stone a toad
Settled in sunlight.

Is this saturation of senses enough?
Living together between a time frame,
We creature and non-creature
And I among them.
