

Packers Top Cards, 31-23, In Come-From-Behind Win

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Travis Williams returned a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown and old pros Bart Starr and Boyd Dowler teamed on an 80-yard touchdown drive as Green Bay rolled from behind to down St. Louis 31-23 in a National Football League game Monday night.

St. Louis, getting two long touchdown passes from 23-year-old quarterback Jim Hart, plus two field goals by Jim Bakken, had a 20-17 lead going into the final period.

The victory gave Green Bay, the No. 1 team in the Western Conference's Central Division, a 5-1-1 record. St. Louis dropped to 4-3 in the Eastern Conference's Central Division. St. Louis, New York and Cleveland now are in a three-way tie for the division lead.

Williams took the kickoff following Bakken's second field goal and sped up the middle to score in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter.

St. Louis, still moving the ball well against Green Bay at mid-field, drove to the Packers' 25 where Bakken tried another field goal. This time the kick was just wide to the right.

Then the Starr-to-Dowler combination hit on passes of 10, 18 and a five-yard touchdown toss to put the game out of reach.

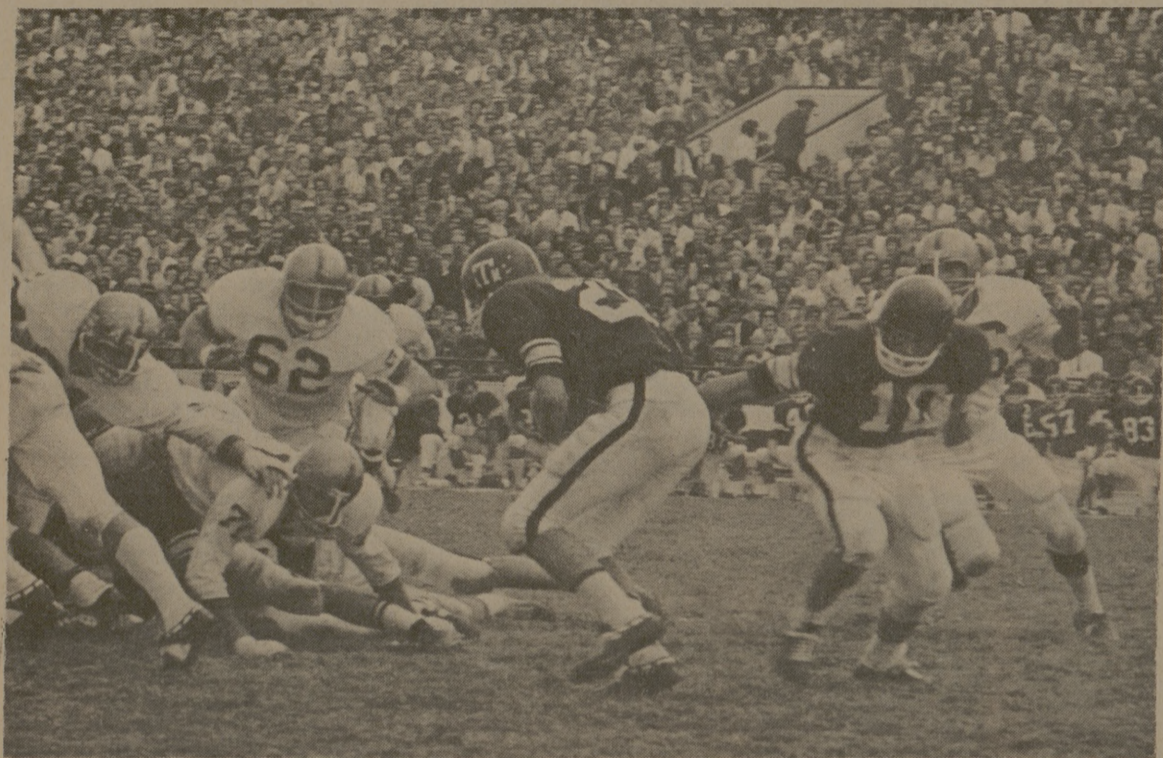

Herb Adderly scored the first Green Bay touchdown on a 12-yard pass interception. Elijah Pitts bulldozed over from the seven for another.

Hart hit rookie Dave Williams on scoring passes of 49 and 48 yards for St. Louis' only touchdowns.

LOOKING FOR ROOM!

Aggie quarterback Edd Hargett is looking for someplace to go in this third quarter action of Saturday's 21-3 win over Baylor.

HEADS FOR DAYLIGHT!

Aggie halfback Larry Stegent takes a handoff from quarterback Edd Hargett and heads for a hole in the Baylor defensive line. It was one of many gains for Stegent, in Saturday's 21-3 Aggie victory.

Year-Old Porker Victory Haunts Aggie-Hog Clash

By JERRY GRISHAM

Last year at this time the Texas Aggies were leading the Southwest Conference with a 3-0 conference record and had just taken a satisfying 17-14 win over the Baylor Bears.

Then the Arkansas Razorbacks came to town. The Hogs behind the hard runing of David Dickey, dumped the Cadets, 34-0, and put the first damper on Aggie hopes for the conference title.

This Saturday in Fayetteville the situation will be similar but not quite the same when the Aggies and Hogs square off.

Instead of being rated ninth in the nation as they were last year the Razorbacks are listed nowhere in the national rankings, being saddled with a season 2-3-1 mark and a league record of 1-1-1 and facing virtual elimination from the SWC race.

The Aggies, after four straight losses, have rebounded with three conference victories in a row and sport a 3-1 in conference play.

But the Razorbacks are not to be taken lightly. You see, the Porkers still have Dickey. It was Dickey, running like a greased pig, who scored four touchdowns against the Aggies last year and was a major factor in the Hog victory.

For those who like to look on the dark side of things it could be said that Dickey was getting in shape for the Ags last Saturday when he rolled up three touchdowns in leading the Arkansas squad to a 28-7 shellacking of the Kansas State Wildcats.

Dickey proved deadly down near the Wildcat goal line as he scored on two plunges from the one and one from the two. Head Coach Frank Broyles has moved Dickey from his customary wingback position to tailback when the Hogs get near paydirt.

Unlike the Aggies the Ozarks Hogs are having trouble at quarterback. Sophomore John Eichler, who has had the most success guiding the Arkansas attack, left Saturday's contest after the first Hog touchdown with a severely injured ankle. Ronny South who was displaced by Eichler earlier in the season is the best bet to start at quarterback Saturday.

How to interview 130 companies in half an hour.

Talk to the man from General Electric. He represents 130 separate GE "companies" that deal in everything from space research to electric toothbrushes. We call them product departments. Each one is autonomous with its own management and business objectives. That's why a job at General Electric offers the kind of immediate responsibility you might expect to find only in a small business. Right from the start you get a chance to demonstrate your initiative and individual capabilities. And the more you show us, the faster you will move ahead. As you do, you'll find that you don't necessarily have to spend a lifetime working on the same job in the same place. We have operations all over the world. Chances are you'll get to try your hand at more than one of them. Our interviewer will be on campus soon. If you're wondering whether it's possible to find challenging work in big business, please arrange to see him. He speaks for 130 "companies."
