

'Get Rich Quick' Visits NY

NEW YORK (AP)—A somewhat bewildered African wearing a conical straw hat and a hooded parka-like coat stepped from a jetliner at Kennedy airport Wednesday and was engulfed by newsmen, photographers and diplomatic greetings.

Tugging at his trousers, which were too big, the man stood smiling and relaxed through the barrage, his stout fur-coated wife at his side, his crippled daughter in a wheelchair nearby.

For Petrus Ramaboa, it was part of the chain that has turned him from a poor farmer in the newly independent nation of Lesotho in South Africa to a rich man.

Earlier this year, Pamaboa's wife, Ernestine, found a 601-carat diamond—the seventh largest in the world—in their family diggings in Letsa-la-Drai.

Ramaboa received more than $300,000 for the gem.

Pope Paul To Undergo Surgery

By GERALD MILLER
Associated Press Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI will undergo surgery for his prostate condition "in the coming days," his doctors announced Wednesday night. The exact date of the operation was not fixed.

A communique signed by the pontiff's physicians said the recent fever that forced the Pope to stop his regular activities had disappeared and that he was regaining "a good condition of health."

"The physicians have jointly agreed not to delay further the surgical intervention, which will be therefore performed in the coming days," the communique added.

Earlier, Pope Paul made an unexpected public appearance and spoke briefly of "that life beyond time."

He thanked the crowd for the interest in his health and added: "We are here today to speak of that life beyond time, of which All Saint's Day and tomorrow, All Soul's Day speak to us."
