Sports Around The World

LENINGRAD, U. S. S. R. (AP) — Russia's Vladimir Kosinsky, 22, broke one of the oldest world records in the swimming book Wednesday when he was clocked in 1 minute, 6.7 seconds for the 100 meters breaststroke, Tass reported.

The official Soviet news agency said Kosinsky, who started swimming 12 years ago, eclipsed countryman Georgy Prokopenko's listed mark of 1:06.9 during the Aquatic Sports Festival in the 50 meter indoor pool of the Army Sports Club.

Prokopenko set his record in Moscow on Sept. 3, 1964.

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's 16-year-old Roland Matthes swam the 200 meters backstroke in 2:07.9 Wednesday for a world record.

Matthes sliced 1.5 seconds from the mark held by the United States' Charles Hickox since last Aug. 29.

The new mark was turned in on the third day of the national session in Leipzig, East Germany. On Tuesday, Matthes had helped establish a 3:36.5-minute world record claimed by the East German 400 meter medley relay team.

OAK PARK, Ill. (AP) — Sammy Mandell, 63, who held the world lightweight boxing title from 1926 until 1930, died Tuesday night in his home.

Mandell had suffered from hardening of the arteries and low blood pressure.

Mandell, once the pride of Rockford, Ill., won the world 135-pound crown from Rocky Kansas on a 10-round decision in Illinois' first legal bout, held at Comiskey Park in 1926.

He was dethroned four years later, when he was knocked out by Al Singer in New York.

Computers Invade The Bowling Alley

CHICAGO (AP) — Bowling, America's largest participant sport, is beginning an era that will eliminate the old method of scoring with crayon and paper. A computer will do the job.

The scorer, who had the headache of mentally computing strikes and spares, fouls and gutter throws, now will be able to sit back and merely push buttons and watch the electronic calculator's readings.

The new system was introduced Wednesday by Brunswick.

Fish And Picadors Play Here Tonight

The Aggie Fish, winless in three outings, play host to the Texas Tech Picadors tonight in Kyle Field.

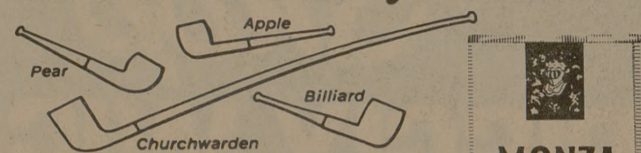

The 7:30 kickoff will pit the two teams against each other for the first time on one of the team's home fields. Previously the game has been played on a neutral site in west Texas.

The Picadors are the defending Southwest Conference champions but are winless in two tries thus far in the season. The Tech Freshmen must take the game to at least have a chance to break even for the season. The Picadors only play four games during the season.

The Aggies have only one more game after tonight's. They play the Texas Shorthorns Nov. 22 in San Antonio.

Aggie Booters Score 7-1 Win

Texas A&M's soccer team defeated Allen Military Academy of Bryan, 7-1, on the Allen field Saturday.

Angel Pastor, the Aggie center forward, scored first on a close shot into the Allen goal. The second score came on Abdel Ghanem's kick from his left wing position. Abdelhamid Zid, A&M's right inside forward kicked the third goal, and Josef Dine, finished the first half scoring with a goal from his center fullback position.

Allen scored their only goal when Carlos Garza, their center forward, broke through the Aggie defense. At the half it was 4-1 in favor of the Maroon and White.

At the start of the second half Pastor scored again. The offense continued to score as Zid kicked the sixth goal. The final score came on Pastor's bullet-like shot into the Allen net.

This victory raised A&M's overall record to 5-2. In Southwest Conference play they stand 5-1, in first place, one game in front of St. Marys of San Antonio.

The University of Texas postponed next week's game with the Aggies till December 16. In two weeks the Southwest Invitational Soccer Tournament is to begin in Austin. However, team captain Carlos Guerra expressed apprehension about the Aggies being able to participate due to insufficient funds.

The only financial support the soccer team has is from the profits of the Exchange Store. The invitational tournament lasts the entire weekend and with only $130.00 to cover team expenses they will probably have to cancel their appearance.
