

What Riggs Lacks In Size, He Makes Up For In Points

Charlie Riggs of Galena Park is living proof of Coach Gene Stallings' philosophy that "size is relatively unimportant in college football."

Riggs stands all of 5-7 if he stretches and weighs nearly 160. Those dimensions aren't overwhelming, even by high school standards, but don't be fooled and underestimate Riggs because of his size.

Charlie led Galena Park to the state finals his senior year when he was captain and quarterback, a position to which he was named on the All-State team.

Aggie recruiters didn't worry about his size. In their view he was what is termed a "winner." They haven't changed their estimations one bit since.

When he came to Aggieland he was noted for his passing more than anything. But, today, he is making a name as a placement kicker in addition to being the backup quarterback to Edd Hargett.

In eight games this season,

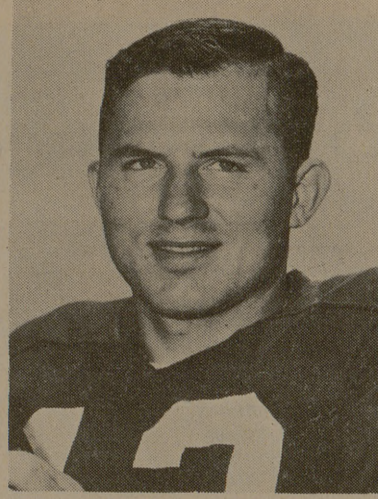

Riggs had made good on 14 of 17 extra point kicks and has hit on 5 of 6 field goal tries. He is the team's third high scorer with 29 points. The A&M one-game record for field goals is two. Riggs this season twice has equalled the record, first against Purdue and later against Florida State. He now shares the record with Joel Hunt and Mike Clark.

Riggs, as a quarterback, is a scrambler who has that enviable knack of being able to move his team toward the foes' goal. He's a tough little hustler who has kept Edd Hargett working hard to keep the No. 1 position for the Aggies.

His kicking could be an important factor this week if past Aggie-Rice games can be used as measuring sticks.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Riggs of Galena Park, Charlie is a physical educational major who plans on coaching after he leaves Texas A&M.

Adami Studies Real Hard, Both Books And Football

If you're looking for a combination of high academic excellence and rugged football excellence, make a close study of Buster Adami, a starting linebacker for the Texas Aggies this year.

Adami and his running mate, Bill Hobbs, from one of the very best linebacking tandems in college football. They are averaging about 20 tackles each per game.

Adami was held out of action last year after having won a freshman numeral. The extra year of seasoning was just what he needed. The square-shouldered, 6-1, 200-pounder, is a highly intelligent youngster who retains what he is taught and he came on fast in the spring.

He continued so well this fall that Stallings was able to move linebacker Robert Cortez, a two-year veteran at the position, to offensive guard because he knew Adami could take care of the linebacking post.

At Freer High School, Adami was a solid football player and perhaps an even more solid student. He was president of Freer High's National Honor Society and valedictorian of his graduating class. He has won Distinguished Student honors since arriving at Aggieland.

Not one who stands out especially in a crowd, Adami is a steady hand on the Aggie defensive unit and seems to get better as he gains experience. Either his number 60 or Hobbs' 55 is in on virtually every tackle when the foes run with the football.

A sophomore in eligibility, Buster has two more seasons to back up the line for the Aggies.

He is majoring in Government and plans to attend Law School after he is graduated from Texas A&M.

Longhorns Wind Up All Wet In Water Polo Loss To Ags

The Texas Aggie water polo team drowned the University of Texas team, 14-10, Wednesday night in Pinky Downs Natatorium.

The Cadets kept their string of victories over Texas extending back 35 years intact with a eight-point second half surge which wiped out the 7-6 lead which the Longhorn swimmers had at half time.

Texas scored first and had two goals on the board before the Aggies rallied. The Ags tied the score at 5-5 midway in the second quarter and the game seasawed until A&M took a 9-8 edge in the third quarter.

The Aggies then slammed four quick goals into the net to increase their lead to 13-9. The Horns were held to only two points in the fourth quarter as the Aggies stressed defense and nursed their lead with one additional point.

In the "B" game the Aggies bombed the Texas "B" squad 11-5.

At the start of the football season Arizona's new coach Dan Mudra said, "We can win it all." After four games the Wildcats record was 1-2-1.

Do you buy a shirt or a label?

You buy both, if you're smart. Because a good label means a good shirt. A shirt that's styled to last. With rolls, pleats and tapers in the right places. And a wide enough selection of colors so you don't have to buy the same shade twice.

This Arrow "Cum Laude" Oxford has all the things a good label means. Button-down collar with a soft flare. Tapered waist. Perma-Iron so it won't wrinkle. "Sanforized-Plus." And it comes in blue, pinks, stripes, etc., etc., for $7.00.

So, if you want a good shirt, look for a good label. And if you want the best label, buy a shirt made by Arrow.

-ARROW- button-down oxford

Here's a shirt specifically tailored for college men. Fashioned of durable weave oxford (perma-iron) that's as new as today. Traditional button-down collar with back loop, back collar button. In white and a wide selection of solids and unusual stripes. "Sanforized-Plus" labeled. $7.00
