

ROLL 'EM OUT

Many upperclassmen might reconsider taking that romantic job offer in the Far North on a logging crew for the summer.

OFF THEY GO

Tractors played a big role in the cutting and hauling area this year. But where the machinery couldn't go—well you know how they were moved out.

STACK OF SPIRIT EVER!

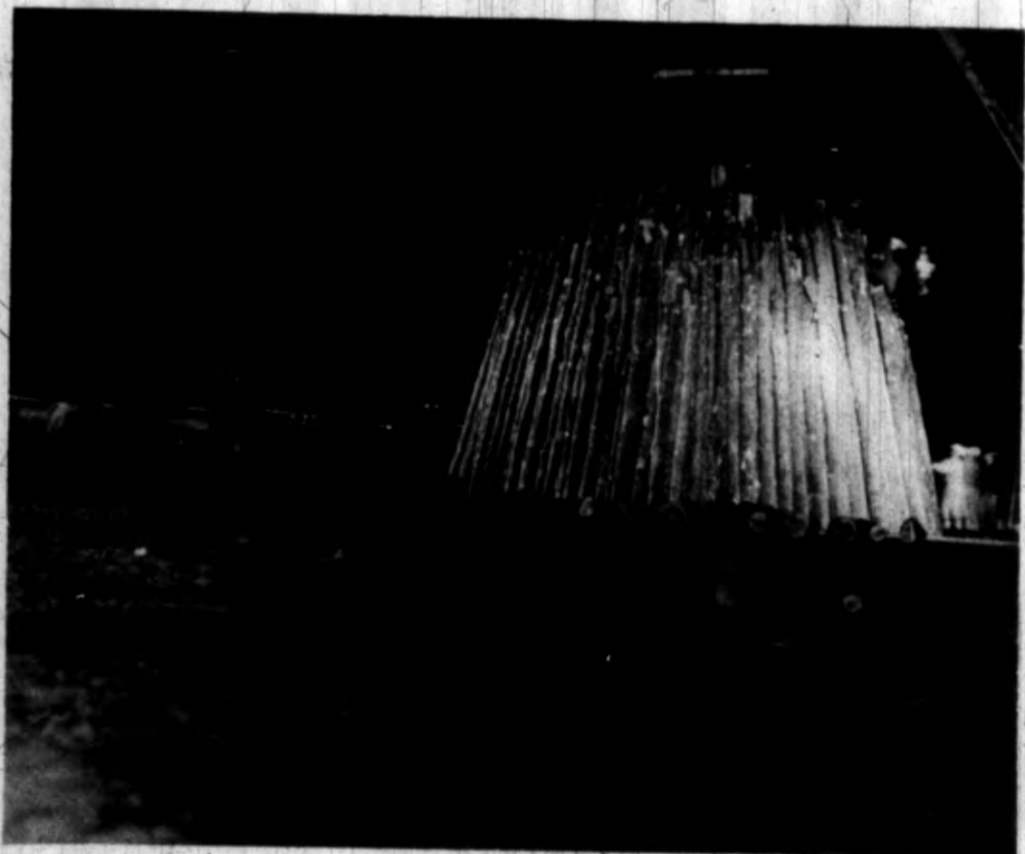

HERE'S MUD IN YOUR EYE

Chewing tobacco for the first time can really be something. It takes a little getting use to, but so do callouses and they both make you feel good.

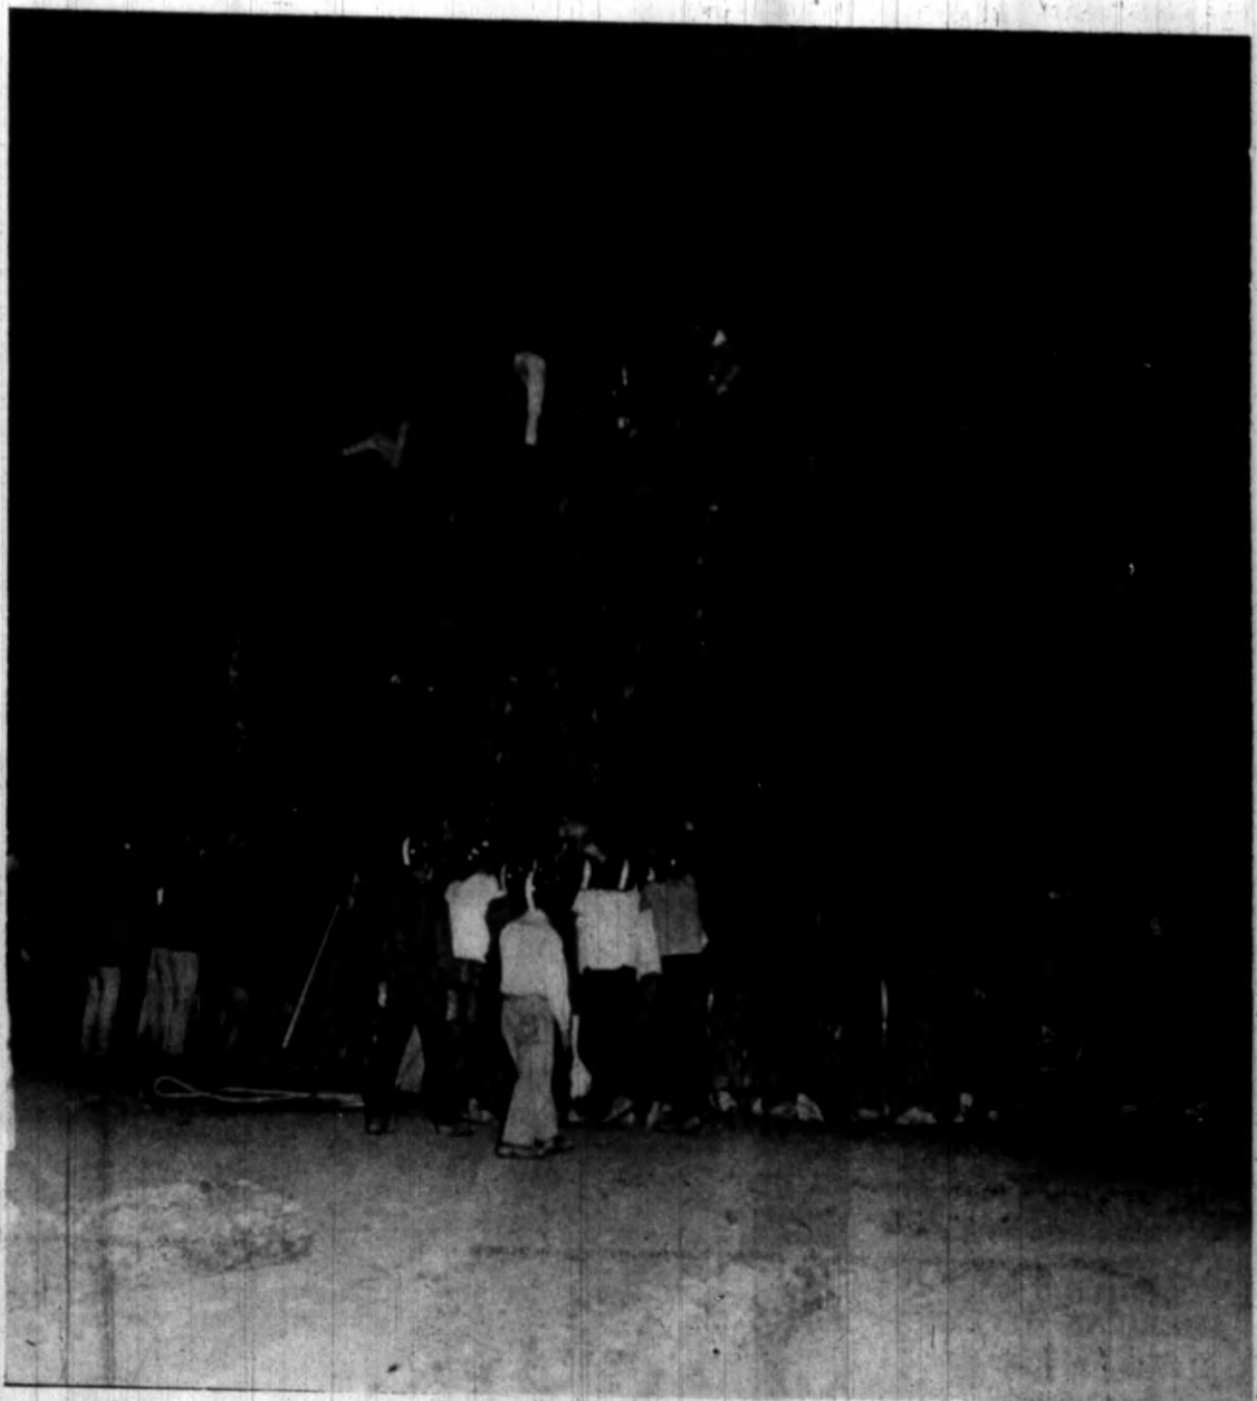

'NUF SAID ...

UNDER THE LIGHTS

Work continues on the Bonfire to help make it the biggest ever. The job won't be finished until the flame's over.

IT'S NEVER OVER

When the sun rose the morning after this picture was taken the second tier had begun to take shape.
