

TMA Awarded Big Gulf Grant For Activities

The Texas Maritime Academy has been awarded a $1,000 student activities grant by the Gulf Oil Corporation.

Capt. Charles H. Glenwright, marine district manager for Gulf and vice chairman of TMA's Board of Visitors, presented the award to Capt. Alfred Philbrick, acting superintendent.

Also participating in the ceremonies were TMA Cadet Commander William Pickavance and Capt. Bennett Dodson who recently retired as superintendent of the academy.

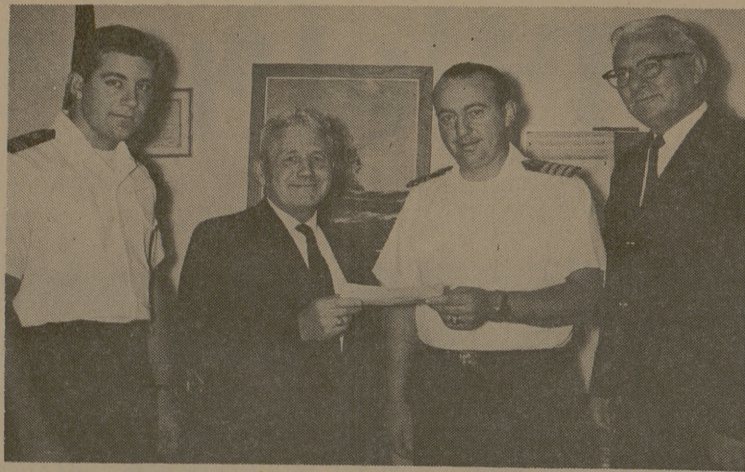

The TMA grant is one of 95 awarded by Gulf this year to colleges and universities throughout the nation as part of the company's Aid to Education Program.

Gulf gifts to institutions of higher education will total approximately $2 million this year, Captain Glenwright noted.

TMA was established five years ago at Galveston as a division of Texas A&M University. The academy offers a four-year course leading to a Bachelor of Science degree in marine engineering or marine transportation.

Litterbugs are not a modern phenomenon. Archeologists report that when an ancient ship took shelter in a bay, the crewmen strewed the sea floor with pottery sherds, broken weapons and tools.

Eisenhower Okays 'Hot Pursuit' Idea

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said Tuesday night he would approve of invading the demilitarized zone in Vietnam and of engaging in "hot pursuit" of Red ground forces into Laos and Cambodia and by air even into Red China.

Eisenhower said he believed in hot pursuit by both ground and air forces, and he discounted the possibility of major intervention by the Soviet Union or Red China.

He said another 100,000 men should be sent to Vietnam "to just clean this thing up more quickly."

He spoke in a taped interview on the CBS television network.

The former Republican president and Allied commander in World War II appeared with the nation's only other living five-star general, Omar N. Bradley.

Eisenhower said he opposed the idea of a "sacrosanct line" on a map which U. S. troops cannot cross.

"As far as I'm concerned," he said, "I would be for what we call 'hot pursuit' even in the air, if . . ."

"Or on the ground?" asked Bradley.

"Or on the ground, that's right. And if you're chasing some people and they just step over into Cambodia or Laos, I wouldn't—it wouldn't bother me. I'd go at 'em as long as they'd come in there in the first place."

"And in this same way, the air. If an airplane attacked me, and we wanted to chase him, I'd go in wherever his base was, as far as I'm concerned."

"Including China?" asked CBS newsman Harry Reasoner.

"Yes, wherever his base comes," replied Eisenhower.

At another point, Eisenhower said he discounted any intervention by Russia or China "on a major basis."

"I discount it," he said, "because Communists operate on the basis of their own plans. Whether they be aggressive, or for the moment they want to be quiescent—whatever. They do not do this by reaction, or some firm action they see elsewhere."

Viet War Turns To Guerrilla Raids

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—The fury of the Vietnam war, focused until late last week in the bloody fighting near Dak To, dissolved Tuesday into scattered guerrilla raids on American and South Vietnamese bases around the country.

There appeared to be no pattern to the hit-and-run Viet Cong attacks, which caused light casualties and moderate to heavy material damage at two air installations, a South Vietnamese junk base, a government sub-sector headquarters and a national police station.

U. S. spokesmen reported only sustained battle—in the Que Son valley, a Communist stronghold south of Da Nang and near the South China Sea coast.

North Vietnamese, firing mortars and automatic weapons, traded shots for six hours Monday with units of the U. S. American Division lifted in by helicopter despite heavy rain. Four Americans and three of the enemy were reported killed and 21 Americans were listed as wounded.

Twelve U. S. Marines were killed and 80 wounded in the valley Sunday.

The battlefields around Dak To were reported quiet. U. S. officers have voiced belief that the North Vietnamese in that part of the central highlands are pulling back toward Cambodia and Laos to regroup and replenish their supplies.

Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency broadcast a claim that 2,800 American and 700 South Vietnamese troops were wiped out in three weeks of fighting at Dak To.

ALFRED M. LILIENTHAL

Alfred M. Lilienthal, noted Middle East scholar, briefs a "World Around Us" audience about the documentary film, "The Turbulent Middle East." Lilienthal makes an annual tour of the Middle East for talks with government leaders and the people.

Lilienthal Speaks On Middle East

A two-day colloquium on the Middle East by an authority on the area, Alfred M. Lilienthal, began last night with a "World Around Us" program.

The program in the MSC Ballroom featured a documentary film, "The Turbulent Middle East."

Lilienthal will use the same title at 8 p.m. tonight for a lecture in the ballroom. The presentation is sponsored by the MSC Speaker Series.

The film highlights the geography, politics, economics and culture of the United Arab Republic, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Lebanon, Kuwait, Jordan, Iraq and Israel.

Lilienthal, who has a background as a scholar, adventurer and journalist, makes an annual tour of the Middle East for talks with government leaders and the people.

His visits have carried him to the refugee camps of Gaza, the war-torn Israeli-Jordan frontiers, the oil centers in Kuwait and the Saudi-Arabian desert kingdom.

A graduate of Cornell and Columbia Law School, Lilienthal is a member of the New York Bar. He has served as consultant to the American delegation at the United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco and to the State Department's Defense Materials Division.

Lilienthal has been a writer-consultant on international relations in Washington, D. C., and during his trips does freelance reporting for the National Broadcasting Company, Reader's Digest and the North American Newspaper Alliance. He also has contributed articles to the Washington Post, American Legion magazine and other publications.

The speaker is the author of several books including "What Price Israel?," "There Goes the Middle East," and "The Other Side of the Coin."
