

B-CS Kids To Hold Judo Meet

Approximately 120 Bryan-College Station youngsters will compete Saturday in a junior judo tournament sponsored by the Texas A&M Judo Club.

Air Force Capt. Gibbs Dibrell, A&M graduate student and club instructor, said the contest begins at 10:30 a.m. at Fannin Elementary School.

Competition will be between fourth through sixth graders enrolled in a 10-week course organized by the club. The students are in their sixth week of instruction. Captain Dibrell said the children will be paired according to height.

While the meet is primarily designed for fun and experience, Captain Dibrell said it will be possible for participants to earn judo ranking. Any contestant defeating five opponents will be awarded junior yellow belt status and 10 wins will result in orange belt designation.

Truck Leads To Firing Of 7 Texas LCB Officers

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Liquor Control Board, alleging misconduct involving a confiscated panel truck and 11 bottles of liquor, fired its Dallas and Victoria supervisors and five Dallas inspectors Wednesday.

Dismissed were Dallas district supervisor James E. Dale; Victoria supervisor Lynn S. Burk, and Dallas inspectors R. L. Valenta, W. B. Groce, B. F. Rakestraw, R. C. Honeycutt and J. B. Nelms.

Information regarding the case also will be turned over to the Dallas district attorney's office, board Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. said at a news conference attended by all three board members.

Stevenson said the case involve a panel truck that was confiscated in Dallas when agents found it was being used to transport illicit beverages. Bids were taken on the truck, and a Cleburne man bought the vehicle with a high bid of $78, he said.

Later, Stevenson continued, title was transferred to Dale. The administrator said 11 bottles of confiscated liquor were traded to a painter to paint the truck.

After it was used for a while for such purposes as hauling equipment to a house Dale is building on Cedar Creek Lake near Athens, Stevenson, the truck was sold for $200.
