

College Football Drafts End As 462 Are Selected

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterbacks Kim Hammond of Florida State and Dewey Warren of Tennessee, sprinter Jim Hines of Texas Southern and All-America defensive back Tom Schoen of Notre Dame were among the top collegians picked in the closing day of the combined American and National Football League drafts.

Although most of the cream had been skimmed off the top

Tuesday when the 26 pro clubs completed five rounds of selections, some still remained for the later rounds.

The teams were selecting a total of 462 players, including extra picks for Cincinnati, the new AFL team, during the 17 rounds.

Hammond, who threw 15 touchdown passes for Florida State, went to the Miami Dolphins of the AFL in the sixth round, using a draft right acquired from Denver in an earlier trade.

Warren, out of action because of injuries during much of the Tennessee season, was a sixth-round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals who had acquired quarterback John Stofa from Miami in a recent deal.

The Miami club also grabbed Hines, the sprinter whose 9.1 seconds for 100 yards tied the world record last year. Hines is a flanker back with Texas Southern.

Schoen, Notre Dame's 5-foot-11, 178-pound defensive back and daring punt return man who was converted from a quarterback, was an eighth-round pick by the Cleveland Browns.

Cincinnati, given special consideration as the latest expansion team, had five selections but traded a few of them away. Owner - Coach Paul Brown had nine picks in the sixth round in which he had all the other AFL selections, except Miami's. The Bengals drafted first and last in each round, except the first, but spun off some of the rights in trades.

On Tuesday, Cincinnati drafted a former Michigan State defensive back, Jesse Phillips. It seemed, however, there was one drawback. Phillips was in jail serving a 15 month to 14 year sentence for check forgery.

A spokesman for Brown said yesterday that the Cincinnati owner knew that Phillips was in jail but he also knew that Phillips was a good football player.

The spokesman, publicity director Al Heim, said, "Paul felt that Phillips just made a mistake. There is no question as to his ability as a player."

Phillips was sentenced last November.
