

LIU Still Tops AP College Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The road is getting tougher but Long Island University continues to roll along undefeated and on top of The Associated Press' small college basketball poll.

Coach Roy Rubin's Blackbirds ran their unbeaten streak to 16, but Norfolk State dropped out of the all-winning group on a thumping 129-103 loss to Delaware State for a 16-1 record.

Long Island beat Rider 55-52 and Hofstra 72-65 last week. Evansville, runnerup a week ago, was toppled by third-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan, 87-78, in overtime and lost its No. 2 spot to the Kentuckians.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and season records through games of Sat., Feb. 10.

1. Long Island U. (11) 16-0

Sport Shorts

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox announced Wednesday the signing of 13 players, leaving only 11 members of the 1967 American League champions still outside the fold.

The latest signings included those of outfielder Tony Conigliaro, second baseman Mike Andrews and relief pitcher Sparky Lyle, all of whom played important roles in the Sox' dramatic drive to the pennant.

Tony reportedly sought $60,000 but was understood to have settled for slightly less.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cassius Clay has turned movie actor, says Havana Radio in a broadcast heard here.

The announcement said he appeared in premier performances of the motion pictures at four theaters in Havana.

It added that the film, entitled "Cassius Clay," presents an exciting story of a man who "chose to fight outside the ring against Yankee racial discrimination and warmongering."

Coach Considers Libel Suit Action

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan State football Coach Duffy Daugherty said Tuesday he is considering filing a libel suit against a student newspaper that said treatment of MSU athletes may have violated Big Ten rules.

Daugherty said he hadn't decided whether to file such a suit, but would leave the decision up to an attorney.

The newspaper, the Michigan Daily, student organ of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, was asked about Daugherty's statement, and managing editor Steve Wildstrom said, "We have no comment other than that we will stand by our stories."

The stories involved were written by Clurk Norton, the newspaper's sports editor, who cited certain acts he said had taken place involving Michigan and Michigan State athletes in possible violations of Big Ten rules.

Meanwhile, John Dewey, assistant Big Ten commissioner, continued questioning Michigan Daily staffers and athletes and coaches at Michigan. He could not be reached for comment.

NCAA Invitation To Pan-American

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — Pan American College accepted Wednesday an invitation to play in the National Collegiate Athletic Association College Division Basketball Championship play-off.

College officials said the Broncs, currently ranked tenth in the Associated Press small college division poll, are to be assigned to a four-team regional tournament at a site to be determined later by the NCAA.

The Broncs have won 15 of their last 16 games and have a 19-4 record. It will mark the first time Pan American has entered competition in an NCAA tournament. The Broncs captured the NAIA championship in 1963 and placed second in 1964.
