LIBERTY BELL REPLICA

Liberty Bell Gift From State

It has been 18 years and Texas A&M still has not decided where to locate permanently the official Texas replica of the Liberty Bell.

THE TWO-TON bell, mounted in the rotunda of the Academic Building, was presented to A&M by Texas Governor Allan Shivers in an Independence Day ceremony in 1950.

At the ceremony, "The Battalion" reported that A&M President M. T. Harrington said, "... any location decided upon at this time is temporary. ..."

"We hope someday, perhaps, that a bell tower might be constructed on campus."

Two months later, the bell was moved to its present location and enclosed in a protective glass case. It took the place of a large trophy case which was moved to the Memorial Student Center.

THEN, THREE years ago, workmen removed the case completely.

A&M President Earl Rudder said recently that there were once plans to build a memorial for the bell on some other part of the campus.

"But the supporters of the plan gradually lost interest and so nothing came of it," he said.

Rudder added that any future plans concerning the bell would have to be submitted to the A&M Executive Committee for consideration.

The BELL was originally one of a set of 53 replicas cast in France. They were used in a six-week publicity campaign promoting U. S. Savings Bonds in 1950.

After the nationwide tour, a bell was given to the governor of each state and to the District of Columbia.

Gov. Shivers said he presented the Texas bell to A&M "in recognition of the outstanding patriotic record of the Texas Aggies."

Owens To Star In Sigma Delta Chi Show March 18

Country music star Buck Owens will perform at Texas A&M March 18 in a benefit for journalism scholarships.

This was announced Monday by Dani Presswood, Sigma Delta Chi journalism society president. Presswood stressed that the program was selected so as not to conflict with Town Hall.

"Our annual show is designed primarily for lovers of country music throughout the area," Presswood said. "We will sell tickets in Madisonville, Hearne, Caldwell, Brenham, Navasota, Bryan and other area communities."

"In the past we have found that most of the audience are non-students, although naturally students are welcome to attend."

Buck Owens is currently recognized as the No. 1 country music star in the nation. Presswood said the chapter felt fortunate to get him. One of Owens' more recent hits is "Got a Tiger by the Tail."

Other country music stars who will perform at the two-hour show, include Freddie Hart, who has a new single, "Togetherness," which is rapidly climbing the national charts.

The show will start at 8 p.m. in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Proceeds from the show will be used mainly for journalism scholarships at Texas A&M. Previous shows have netted more than $4,000 for scholarships, enabling many high school and junior college graduates to enter A&M. A number of current journalism students are on Sigma Delta Chi scholarships.
