Summer Musical Auditions Planned

College students and adults who would like to use their talents and experience in an outdoor theatre this summer, are invited to audition for "TEXAS," the spectacular musical-drama, written by Paul Green and performed during the summer months in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, near Canyon and Amarillo.

Auditions are scheduled for Saturday, at the Inn of the Six Flags, across from Six Flags Park Pony Express Building, Arlington, Texas, from 9-12 a.m. and 1-5 p.m. Members of the cast must be available from June 1 (rehearsal) through Labor Day. The Theatre has a close connection with West Texas State University and credit is available for your work in the show.

Those wishing to try out should be prepared to give a memorized reading (not to exceed three minutes) to show voice projection and characterization. Actors filling minor roles also double as members of the chorus and all applicants should audition for singing as well as acting roles. Singers should present one prepared number and have an accompanist or music for an accompanist. The selected song should show the strength and quality of the voice, whether it be opera, aria, art, show or folk song.

Performances will be every night except Tuesdays from June 29 through Labor Day in the handsome Pioneer Amphitheatre which lies in the Palo Duro Canyon, an inspiring place to work in a wonderful summer climate.

Pre-Vet Adopts Family Girl To Visit Czechs

A Texas A&M freshman pre-veterinary medicine major who has no brothers or sisters will "adopt" a Czechoslovakian family this summer.

Jeanna Chastain, 18, has been selected as one of five A&M participants for the Experiment in International Living. She will be the first girl from A&M in the program.

A&M STUDENTS who have been Experimenters tell Jeanna she will make friendships as binding as family ties, and as lasting. Her father passed away seven years ago. Jeanna's mother is a Texas Transportation Institute stenographer.

Miss Chastain will be a junior ambassador in the Experiment, a program of international good will based on the premise that one best learns to understand another people and their culture by living among them as the member of a family.

EIL participation usually follows the sophomore year, but Miss Chastain will be applying for year-round classes in vet school then. She has a 2.27 grade point ratio, an Opportunity Awards scholarship and will receive a $600 Experiment scholarship.

EXPERIMENTERS attend an intensive two-week language school at Brattleboro, Vt., in preparation for 10 weeks in an assigned country. Students live with a family during the first half and sight-see in groups later.

Jeanna was alternate for a similar high school program conducted by the American Field Service and first applied for Denmark. MSC Director J. Wayne Stark convinced her she should apply for Czechoslovakia.

"From my library research, Czechoslovakia appears more challenging," the pre-vet major commented. "Also, there's an agricultural academy at Prague we may get to visit and it's my life dream to see the Vienna Riding School's Lippizan horses."

"PART OF the tour will be through Austria, and on our way to Czechoslovakia, we'll travel through Denmark by train," Jeanna said.

"This won't be my first flight from the home nest," the grey-eyed blonde remarked. Her mother, Mrs. Katherine Chastain, worked in California six months while Jeanna completed studies at MacArthur High in San Antonio. They lived in California, Colorado, Nevada, Arkansas, New Mexico and Arizona.

Jeanna's affection for animals formed the basis of correspondence with Joy Adams, author of "Born Free," and led to her arrival at A&M.

"I had intended to study at Oklahoma A&M, then we moved to San Antonio. I began writing Dr. (Edgar D.) McMurry (vet medicine assistant dean) as a sophomore, sometimes twice a month. I'm afraid I pestered him, but he always replied and helped me get a scholarship and admittance as an undergraduate," she pointed out.
