

UCLA - Houston Features Tournament Finals This Weekend

LOS ANGELES (AP) — All-Americans Elvin Hayes of Houston and Lew Alcindor of UCLA resume their head-and-head battling on Friday night when the outcome will decide which club reaches the national finals.

THE 6-FOOT-8 Hayes proved the master in the first meeting on Jan. 20 in Houston's Astrodome when the Cougars won 71-69 in their greatest test of an undefeated season. Hayes tallied 39 points to 15 for the 7-1/2 Alcindor.

Ohio State and North Carolina open the National Collegiate Athletic Association's championship semifinals at the Los Angeles Sports Arena at 7 p.m., but most interest centers on Houston-UCLA at 9 p.m.

Houston was voted No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and defending national champion UCLA was No. 2.

COACH John Wooden of UCLA said of the Astrodome battle: "Lew played shyly. He was not aggressive and it looked like he was shooting in slow motion." That game came just eight days after Alcindor suffered an eye injury in a game against California. He had some double vision the next few weeks.

"Hayes will not guard Alcindor alone," Wooden added. "You don't play Lew defensively one-on-one effectively."

A year ago, as a sophomore, Alcindor was voted the outstanding player in the national tournament as UCLA beat Houston 73-58 and Dayton 79-64.

Coach Guy Lewis of Houston says the pressure will be on UCLA this time since it lost the January game in Houston. Of Hayes, he commented, "He has played three great years for us. I hope he has two more great games."

SPORTS Network Inc., will handle the national telecast of the Houston-UCLA game with the Los Angeles area blacked out.

The championship finals, starting at 7 p.m. PST Saturday following the 5 p.m. consolation, will be telecast with no local blackout. Ohio State's Cinderella club, which edged Kentucky 82-81 after winning a Big Ten playoff game, must overcome a flexible North Carolina team and its All-American Larry Miller who hit at a 22.7 clip during the year.

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame's stubborn defense faces another test against Dayton in Thursday night's semifinals of the National Invitation Tournament, but Kansas gets the most difficult question—Can St. Peter's be stopped? The Jayhawks will be trying to succeed where all others have failed against the racing Peacocks when they meet in the nightcap of the Madison Square Garden basketball showcase.

"WE LIKE to run, but the worst thing you can do is try to move against a great running team if you're only an average running team like we are," said Kansas Coach Ted Owens Wednesday. "We'll just try to play our normal tempo and try to keep them from doing to us what they did to Duke." Owens was an awed observer when St. Peter's, a little known school in Jersey City, N. J., devastated top-seeded Duke 100-71 in the quarter-finals after upsetting Marshall 102-93 in double overtime in the first round. Notre Dame's biggest problems are 6-10 Dan Obrovac and 6-4 second team All-America Don May.
