

A&M Consol's Watson Picked

Class AAA All-Schoolboy Basketballers Are Announced

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Clear Creek didn't make it to the state tournament but it still boasted the two top players of Class AAA schoolboy basketball.

Ennis Watson, A&M Consolidated's 6-9 center, was named to the honor team's third squad.

The tall, slender senior paced Coach Jack Churchill's cagers to a 31-3 season slate and a tie for the district championship for the second straight year. Watson scored at a 19.5 clip for the season and hauled down 11 rebounds per contest.

Watson, who will attend Sam Houston State next year on a basketball scholarship, hit on 60 percent of his field shots in district play.

One of the top two from Clear Creek was a name that has become most familiar in the past decade—Scooter Lenox. He is the fourth straight Lenox to make it big from Clear Creek. Before him were Bennie, Curley and Jimmie Dale.

Richard Huhn was the other Clear Creek player to crack the all-state Class AAA team and he also was the leading vote getter. He had 52 points, just one more than Lenox in the balloting of the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Johnny Braggs of San Antonio Wheatley, Tres Blankenbecker of Waxahachie and Riley Odoms of West Oso were the others on the all-state first team. All are seniors.

Odoms had the top scoring average with 25.1 per game. Lenox was next with 25.0 while Huhn averaged 22.0, Blankenbecker 24.6 and Braggs 18.1.

Huhn is a repeated from 1967. Blankenbecker advanced from second team to first as did Lenox.

Making the second team were Pat Fees of Lamesa, Tommy Bullard of Snyder, Frank Lujan of South San Antonio, Mike Dukes of Levelland and Robert Threadgill of New Braunfels.
