

Aggie Win Streak Hits Seven

By GARY SHERER
Years ago, the only preserving was done in grandma's jars. Today, as far as the Texas Aggie baseball team is concerned, they leave their preserving to one person—Rocky Thompson.

The stocky senior from Houston answered the relief call for the second straight game Monday afternoon at Kyle Field, and the result was bad for the opposition. As he did in Saturday's 2-0 win over Texas Christian, Thompson repeated his performance against Missouri's nine Monday with two innings of hitless, runless pitching. The 4-0 Aggie victory made it seven in-a-row for Coach Tom Chandler's Aggies.

The Aggies and Missouri complete their two-game series today at Kyle Field.

Two weeks ago, the Aggies' season mark was 4-4 after they opened their current nine-game home stand with a 7-5 loss to Minnesota. The Aggies did a fast regrouping, and have strung together seven straight wins.

In that skien, the Aggie hitters have put together 33 runs while the pitching staff has limited the other teams to five tallies.

The biggest wins of that streak came this past weekend as the Maroon and White made it a complete sweep of TCU with back-to-back victories. Friday, the Aggies blasted the Frog pitching staff with 16 hits and an equal number of runs in a 16-3 Aggie triumph.

Saturday, the Aggies proved they could win the close ones also with a 2-0 squeaker over TCU's ace Mickey McCarty. McCarty was making his first SWC start of the year and the Aggies made it an unhappy one.

The double victory pushed the Frogs out of the SWC lead and put the Aggies into a three-way tie for the lead with Baylor and Texas.

Also, the three victories over TCU this season (the Aggies topped the Frogs 4-1 at Fort Worth earlier in the season), mark the first times the Aggies have beaten TCU since 1965.

This week, the Aggies see no SWC action as they follow up today's Missouri game (weather permitting) with a trip to Houston Thursday for a game with the Houston Cougars. Meanwhile this week, Baylor and Texas will meet Wednesday and Thursday.

So, barring two wins by Texas, first place should be at stake when the Aggies host Baylor in their next home action next week. (Today's game was cancelled.)

Golfers Take SWC Win; Netters Drop Home Pair

By JOHN PLATZER
A 4-2 victory over Southern Methodist in Dallas Friday by Coach Henry Ransom's Aggie golf team boosted them to third place in the Southwest Conference standings.

The defending champions currently have a 12½-5½ mark behind Texas Tech at 5½-2½ and Baylor at 5-1. Texas University, surprisingly strong early in the season with two victories over national - power University of Houston, occupies the fourth spot at 3½-2½.

Duke Butler, Chuck Leske and Reggie Majors recorded singles wins for the Aggies while the team of Butler and Leske registered a doubles win.

TENNIS
Rough sailing was experienced by the Aggie tennis team over the weekend as they dropped home matches to Pan American on Friday and Texas Tech Saturday.

Texas Tech buried the Aggies 6-0 to drop Coach Omar Smith's crew to the conference basement with a 0-12 mark.

In the Friday loss, the Aggies were edged 4-3. Marcus Beleck was the only Aggie to win a single match but both maroon and white doubles teams were victorious.

The team of Jon Ragland and Jerry Oliver defeated Rico Castaris and Julio Moros while Joe Tillerson and Mike Hickey teamed to beat Fred Berli and Yvon Savy.

TRACK
Freshmen Kelvin Korver and Curtis Mills paced the track efforts of the Aggies last Saturday at the Dallas Invitational Meet.

Mills set the winning pace in the 440-yard dash with a time of 48.4.

Korver took first place in the discus with a toss of 157-1½. Ronny Lightfoot, an Aggie sophomore, was third in the event with a toss of 153-1.
