FACULTY DEVELOPMENT LEAVE APPLICATION DEADLINES ANNOUNCED The Faculty Evaluation Committee has announced that it is ready to receive applications for development leaves from Texas A&M University faculty members for the academic years 1968-69. A policy statement regarding faculty development leaves and application forms were sent to department heads, deans and directors last week through the office of Vice President and Dean Wayne C. Hall. Persons interested in submitting requests for Faculty Development Leave should obtain copies of the policy statement and application forms from these offices. Applications for leaves for the fall semester of 1968 should be in the hands of the Faculty Evaluation Committee by May 1. Dr. R. L. Skrabanek, professor of sociology and chairman of the committee, stated that applications received up to July 1 may still receive consideration if funds for the leave program are available at that time. 565111

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY EXAMINATION The English Proficiency Examination required of all junior students majoring in Education or in Psychology will be offered on April 24, (Wednesday) from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. in Academic 401. It will be offered again the same day from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. in Academic 205. Students may take the examination either time by reporting to the appointed place at the indicated time. Examinees should bring pen, pencil, dictionary, and composition paper. 565117

Those undergraduate students who have 95 semester hours of credit may purchase the A&M ring. The hours passed at the time of the Preliminary Grade Report, April 1, 1968, may be used in satisfying the 95 hour requirement. The students qualifying under this regulation may leave their name with the Ring Clerk in the Registrar's Office in order that he may check the records to determine their eligibility to order the ring. Orders for the rings will be taken between April 16 and May 31, 1968. All rings will be returned to this office on or about July 10 for further delivery. The Ring Clerk is on duty from 8:00 to 12:00 noon, Monday through Friday. 549134

Texas Pays Tribute To King

The largest public school system in the South will close Tuesday as Houston and other Texas cities pay tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on the day of his funeral.

A bell of mourning will peal at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Fort Worth at 9:30 a.m. as services start at the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Ga., for the slain civil rights leader.

Msgr. Joseph Erbrick said the bell of the Catholic cathedral will be struck 39 times in memory of the 39-year-old Dr. King.

Bishop Humberto Medeiros of the Brownsville Diocese announced that all Catholic churches in the diocese will offer special masses Tuesday in honor of Dr. King.

"We recommend that all the faithful join with us on Tuesday of Holy Week at the Altar of God to implore the blessings of compassion, understanding and true brotherhood for our nation," Bishop Medeiros said.

The Houston public school system, the largest in the South and the sixth largest in the nation, will be closed Tuesday. General Supt. Glenn Fletcher said the day will be made up with an extra day at the end of the school calendar in order to meet the state requirement of 175 school days a year.

The University of Houston also cancelled classes and all university-sponsored activities for Tuesday. Texas Southern University will begin its Easter recess Tuesday, a day earlier than scheduled. Rice University dismissed classes Saturday for the Easter holidays.

MAYOR LOUIE Welch announced that city employes in Houston will be allowed to take Tuesday off as a day of mourning.

Scores of Texas cities conducted special memorial services Sunday for the assassinated Negro leader and other gatherings were held Monday.

Approximately 500 persons attended a special memorial service sponsored by the Austin Council of Churches. Talks were given by Mayor Harry Akin and Dr. William C. Howland, pastor of the University Christian Church of Austin, read selections from King's speeches.

"The death of Dr. King is a tragedy in the life of everyone in the free world," the Rev. L. A. Thigpen, pastor, St. James Africa Methodist Church, said in the principal talk.

Arson, Looting Continue In Baltimore, 1,900 Troops Added To Present 8,995

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) - More federal troops moved into Baltimore Monday and a rigid curfew was clamped down on the city as arson, looting and violence continued for the third straight day and spread to areas previously untouched.

Five persons were dead and more than 410 injured since Saturday. Arrests climbed past the 2,100 mark.

About 1,900 men requested by Lt. Gen. Robert H. York, from the 197th Infantry Brigade, Ft. Benning, Ga., were sent to Baltimore Monday to supplement 2,995 federal troops and 6,000 National Guardsmen already on duty.

POLICE SAID that in southwest Baltimore, crowds of white and Negro youths confronted each other in two places, but that nothing serious developed. The violence previously had consisted of arson, looting and general destruction.

The curfew, first put into effect by Gov. Spiro T. Agnew Saturday, was made more rigid. No one was allowed through the lines between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. except for those persons representing essential public utilities and doctors, nurses and newsmen.

Incidents occurred through the city and spread northward to the line of Baltimore County, where the National Guard was ordered on Sunday. Looting was reported on York Road, 60 blocks north of the downtown area, and to the west five miles from downtown.

IN THE downtown business area, previously unscathed by violence, police arrested a group of Negro men and confiscated whiskey bottles filled with gasoline.

Many buildings in one block of west Baltimore were burned. Bands of Negro teen-agers roamed two predominantly Negro shopping centers.

Two surplus stores containing weapons were broken into, but police quickly moved in and confiscated all weapons.

THE CITY was paralyzed and virtually deserted in the areas of no violence.

The National Guard said more than 1,100 looting incidents and 400 fires had been reported since Saturday.

A ban was placed on the sale of liquor, firearms and gasoline except that put directly in vehicle tanks.

Our Space Department

Big. This year even bigger. Some Chevrolet Tri-Levels are longer. Some wider. Some with more cargo room. Size up Impala. Nothing in its field comes as big. For instance, in many others you wouldn't dare try laying a 4 x 8-foot mirror flat in the main cargo level. (Especially if you're superstitious.) In Impala, no problem. The hidden storage compartment on the lower level also takes more of your gear than any of them. The roof rack you order should take care of the rest. For your comfort, there's extra hip and shoulder room. We make our Tri-Levels lots more attractive in other ways, too. With such exclusives in Chevrolet's field as an ignition warning system. You'll get a buzz out of it if you ever leave your key in the switch. There are rocker panels that clean themselves with every shower you go through. Inner fenders that protect the outer ones from rust. And hidden windshield wipers on many models. Even with all these advantages, Impala and Chevelle Concours are the lowest priced luxury wagons in their fields. And if that's what you like to hear, hear this. Unprecedented savings are yours now at your Chevrolet dealer's '68 Savings Explo. See the details below.
