Owls, Frogs, Hogs Test Ag Cindermen In Ozarks

By JOHN PLATZER

The Aggie track team, minus Lonny Noel, Richard Ball, Rockie Woods and Steve O'Neal, travel to the hills of Arkansas Saturday for a quadrangular meet in Fayetteville.

The meet, an all Southwest Conference team affair, will pit Coach Charley Thomas' squad against Rice, Texas Christian University and Arkansas.

THE FOUR doubtful Aggies are hampered by injuries and will not be able to compete in their specialties although Woods may try the high jump and O'Neal the broad jump.

Although originally scheduled for the afternoon the meet has been moved up to 11 a.m. due to an Arkansas football scrimmage.

George Resley and Ronny Lightfoot will be out to better their conference leading efforts in the shot in the meet. Resley tops the SWC with a 57-4 toss while Lightfoot is second with a 56-6½ effort.

MARTIN Rollins is the only other SWC leading Aggie with a top mark of 16-1½ in the pole vault.

Another chance at Rice's Conley Brown will be in the offering for freshman Curtis Mills. Brown, one of the most heralded performers in the conference, finished third behind second place Mills in the Texas tri-meet last weekend.

Jack Abbott, second in the conference behind Jerry Utecht of Southern Methodist University in the 120-yard high hurdles, will be attempting to improve on his season's best of 14.2.

A&M's mile and 440 yard relay team's are also expected to provide a challenge in the Arkansas meet.

A&M Sports Car Club Schedules Weekend Events

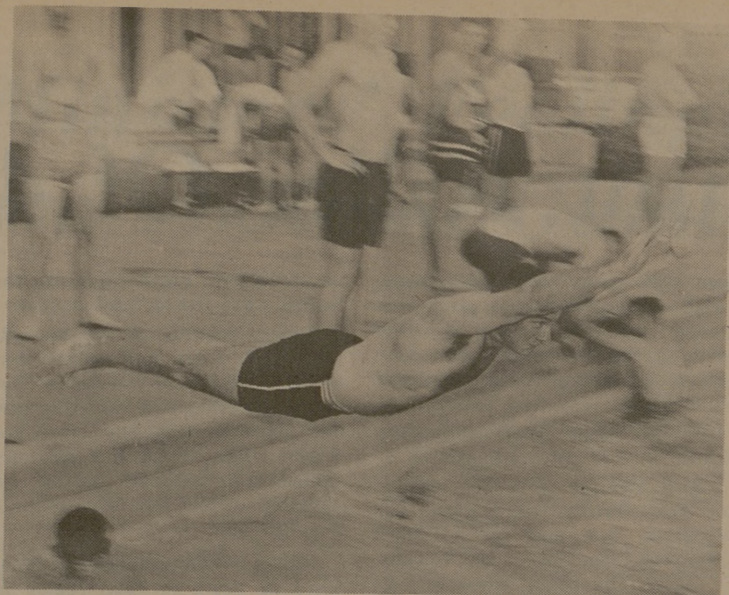

A "Sports Car Holiday" with two main events is scheduled this weekend by the Texas A&M Sports Car Club.

A rally will lead off the "Holiday" on Saturday with an autocross ending it on Sunday.

The Calvin Hazelwood Rally will start at the parking lot across from Sbis Dining Hall with registration at 9 a.m. and the first car leaving at noon.

The Little Daytona Auto-cross will be at the old Bryan Air Base with registration and open practice starting at 9 a.m. and timed runs at 1 p.m.

Entry fees will be $4 per event or $6 for both.

INTRAMURAL SWIMMING

Lawrence Wright, Sqd. 8 sophomore, starts off on the first leg of the free-style 400-foot Medley Relay event. This event is one of the six preliminary events. Finals will be Monday at 7:30 p. m. (Photo by Mike Wright)

A&M To Host Saturday Gym Soccer Clinic

Texas A&M University will be the site of a gymnastics and soccer clinic Saturday.

Elementary and secondary physical education teachers—possibly 150 of them—are expected for the clinic headed by Lindy Baer, A&M instructor in health and physical education.

Morning speakers include E. A. Snapp of the Gym Master Company, Houston, and Dr. Bill Crenshaw, owner of an Austin athletic club. Snapp will review gymnastics for elementary teachers, while Crenshaw expounds on the same subject for secondary boys.

A gymnastics lecture for secondary girls is set by Jeanette Hawkins of Pan American College.

Joe Eschelle, general manager of the Houston Stars professional soccer team, and T. A. Willbern, health and physical education director for Cypress - Fairbanks Schools, will discuss soccer.

Dr. C. B. Corbin, A&M assistant professor of health and physical education, will direct the clinic's soccer section.

An exhibition by the A&M soccer team is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. on the field north of DeWare Field House. Dr. Kurt Irgolic is the coach. At 3:30 p.m. in DeWare Field House, a gymnastics demonstration will spotlight elementary, secondary and college students, and A&M Gymnastics Club members.

Aggies In Weekend Series

By GARY SHERER The Texas Aggie baseball team gets back into Southwest Conference action today and Saturday in a three-game series with Texas Tech at Lubbock.

A doubleheader today will be followed by a single game Saturday.

Coach Tom Chandler's nine is currently 4-3 in SWC play and will be looking for a sweep of the Red Raiders to stay in contention for the league crown.

TEXAS TECH is in its first year of SWC baseball play this season. Coach Kal Segrist's charges are currently in last place in the conference race. This will not be the two team's first meeting on the diamond however, as the Aggies have been playing Tech in previous seasons in non-conference encounters. Chandler has selected Rick Schwartz and Dave Benesh to pitch today's games with either Walter Varvel or Doug Rau slated for Saturday.

Schwartz, has been turning in some impressive statistics in recent games. The 6-1 senior from Brownsville had not given up an earned run for a month but had it broken in the Aggies' doubleheader win over Houston Monday.

ANOTHER STRING was broken for the Aggies earlier this month, when the Baylor Bears stopped the Maroon and White winning streak at seven. The Bear's ace pitcher John Beil shutout the Aggies 2-0 and gave them their third conference loss.

This game turned out to be the two teams' final match for 1968. The next day's game was rained out and will not be replayed. Baylor and Beil stopped the Aggies in the other game earlier at Waco, 5-0.

The Aggies are in second place in SWC play behind Texas and just ahead of Baylor and Texas Christian in third place.
