

STRENGTH IN 77 SECONDS

That's all it takes to help build powerful muscles, trim body
No strenuous exercises...no elaborate gym equipment...no lengthy, tedious work-outs. You don't need time, space, or energy to multiply your strength...to broaden your shoulders...to increase your lung capacity...to trim your waistline...to develop vigor. Now the same method of Isometric-Isotonic Contraction that trained the German Olympic Team and other world-famous athletes can help YOU build a powerful physique. Yes, even if you are 30, 50 years old or more. Unlike ordinary isometric contraction devices, the TENSOLATOR® combines both Isometric and Isotonic benefits in a series of quick 7-second exercises that you do once a day in your own room—less than 2 minutes in all! Muscles grow stronger, shoulders broaden, chest expands, waist tapers down—and you feel like a new man. Fast? We guarantee impressive results in 10 days or your money back without question. Send for the big brochure that shows step-by-step illustrations of the Tensolator Method. Aggie Pair Wins Second In SWC Tennis Doubles

By JOHN PLATZER
A&M provided the biggest surprise of the Southwest Conference Tennis Meet last weekend as the team of Jon Ragland and Joe Tillerson made it all the way to the doubles finals before losing to Rice.

Rice, which is rated either number one or two nationally depending on which poll you believe, went through the year without tasting defeat.

The Aggies, on the other hand, are basically a young team and considered a year or two away by Coach Omar Smith.

Despite the Rice advantage, Ragland and Tillerson made a match of the doubles before losing 6-2, 6-4, 6-0 to the Owl twosome of John Pickens and Butch Seewagen.

It marked the fourth time in five years that A&M has made it to the SWC finals in tennis. Ragland is only a sophomore and will be back next season to try to advance that one further step but Tillerson graduates this year and leaves his spot open.

Tillerson and Ragland defeated a doubles team from Southern Methodist Friday to advance to the finals.

Seewagen, who dates Kathrine Ross star of the movie "The Graduate", was dethroned by teammate Pickens as the SWC singles champion in a Saturday morning match.

GOLF

Billy Wade, Duke Butler and Richard Ellis represented the Aggies at the SWC golf meet in Fort Worth. None of the Aggie trio was able to pierce the Conference's first three places.

The fourth member of Coach Henry Ransom's team, Reggie Majors, failed to qualify for a spot on A&M's three man team for the Fort Worth trip.

Jess Claiborne, of Texas Christian, won the SWC championship with a one-under-par performance for the four rounds. He had rounds of 69, 71, 69 and 75 over the 6,234 yard par 71 Glen Garden Country Club course.

FISH BASEBALL

Coach Lou Camilli's Fish Baseball team finishes its season Saturday afternoon at Kyle Field with a doubleheader against the Texas Yearlings.

The Fish will carry a 5-1 season slate into the 1:30 first game.

Maroon Teams Have Veteran Look In Spring Football Training Drills

By GARY SHERER

As the third week of spring football training begins, Coach Gene Stallings and his staff have a veteran look to their maroon first-teamers.

Nine lettermen were missing from last year's season-ending squad as Stallings blew the starting whistle for this spring's workouts back on April 17. Five of the nine went by the diploma route while the other four decided to concentrate on their studies.

This left 31 lettermen (another, Bob Long was excused for baseball) to form a nucleus for the 104 candidates that reported.

So far, all the veterans that were, have kept their first-team status, while some newcomers have come along to plug up the holes left by the non-returnees (namely Dan Schneider, Mark Weaver, Grady Allen, Robert Cortez and Bill Sallee).

The four problem spots were offensive strong guard and strong tackle, weak guard and defensive right end. At present, three sophomores-to-be and a last season red shirt are filling the bill.

At the guard positions are Jim Parker, a 6-1, 195-pounder from Gonzales and Rusty Stallings, a Midland product who was red-shirted last season. Stallings has been running with Jack Kovar at center before being moved to weak guard.

The other offense post, strong tackle, is being manned by Mike Fields, 6-3, 219 from Texarkana. A standout on last season's Fish squad, Ohioan Mike DiNero, has taken over Allen's defensive end post.

Other than these, the old guard has held firm as the May 18 spring game approaches.

Due to injuries, some changes have been made on defensive. Regular defensive halfback Curley Hallman is hampered by a bad leg and Johnny Turney, a junior from Dublin, has taken over. Also, another defensive halfback from last season, Jack Whitmore, is now being tried on offense, at wingback.

Mike Tighe, another sophomore-to-be, is now running at back-up tackle on defense. Otherwise, everything remains as it started.

On offense, Larry Stagent and newcomer Johnny Weaver are operating at tailback, Wendell Housley is at fullback and Edd Hargett

Atlanta Group Takes Over NBA's Hawks

NEW YORK (AP) — The purchase of the St. Louis Hawks by an Atlanta group was unanimously approved Tuesday by the National Basketball Association board of governors. The sale price was $3.5 million.

The club was bought from E. Kerner, the long-time owner, a group headed by former Georgia Gov. Carl E. Sanders and Thomas G. Cousins, a Georgia real estate developer. It will be shifted to Atlanta and play in the nine-team Western Division along with Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego, Seattle and Phoenix.

The team will play its home games at Atlanta Memorial Coliseum on the campus of Georgia Tech. It has a seating capacity of 7,400 and could be enlarged to accommodate 16,000.
