

Oakland's Hunter Hurls Perfect Game In 4-0 Win

OAKLAND (AP)—Jim "Catfish" Hunter hurred the American League's first perfect game in regular season play since 1922 Wednesday night and drove in three runs as the Oakland Athletics trimmed Minnesota 4-0.

Hunter, a 22-year-old right-hander in his fourth major league season, set down all 27 batters he faced in stymying the normally hard-hitting Twins to become the ninth perfect game pitcher in modern baseball history.

The 6-foot-5, 195 youngster from Hertford, N. C., struck out 11 and needed just one outstanding defensive play—third baseman Sal Bando's stab of a fifth-inning grounder by Bob Allison—in tossing the second no-hitter of the young season.

His perfect game gem matched a feat last accomplished by Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers' brilliant southpaw, three years ago against the Chicago Cubs.

The last American Leaguer to toss a perfect game was New York Yankees' right-hander Don Larsen, who did it in the 1956 World Series against the Brooklyn Dodgers. But it had been 46 years since Charlie Robertson of the Chicago White Sox pitched a perfect game against the Detroit Tigers in a regular season contest.

Hunter completed his classic performance by getting pinch hitter John Roseboro to ground out, leading off the ninth, striking out Bruce Look and fanning Rich Reese on a 3-2 count after the pinch hitter had fouled off five straight pitches.

Locked in a scoreless duel with Minnesota's Dave Boswell for six innings, Hunter gave himself all the offensive help he needed with a run-scoring bunt single in the seventh.

In the eight, his two-run single capped a three-run wrapup burst for the A's.

Hunter, who signed with the Athletics for a $75,000 bonus in 1964, was 13-17 last year and missed a month because of an appendectomy. He came into Wednesday night's game with a lifetime record of 32-38, including a 2-2 mark this season.

It was the first no-hitter ever Minnesota 000 000 000-0 0 1 Oakland 000 000 13x-4 10 0 Boswell, Perranoski 8 and Look; Hunter and Pagliaroni. W—Hunter, 3-2. L—Boswell, 3-2.

hurlled by an Oakland pitcher. The Athletics, who moved to the West Coast city this year from Kansas City, have not had a no-hitter since Bill McCahan threw one against Washington on Sept. 3, 1947, when the club was still in Philadelphia.
